

Table of Contents

Editors' Note.....	7
Conference Report	9
Part I: Politics of History
The Holocaust as a Polish Problem	17
Jews as a Polish Problem; and Why Not – as a Part of Polish History?.....	29
Polishness in Practice.....	37
Part II: Reading the Museum
Polin: “Ultimate Lost Object”	49
Wall and Window: the Rubble of the Warsaw Ghetto as the Narrative Space of the POLIN Museum of the History of Polish Jews.....	59
The Rule of the Golden Mean.....	99
The Embassy of Poland in Poland: The Polin Myth in the Museum of the History of Polish Jews as Narrative Pattern and Model of Minority-Majority Relations.....	121
Part III: Problematizing the Jewish Turn
Problematizing the “Jewish Turn”	175

Toward a Diasporic Poland/Polin: Zeitlin, Sutzkever, and the Ghost Dance with Jewish Poland.....181

Public Pedagogy and Transnational, Transcultural Museums.....197

Appendix

Appendix I: Polish-Jewish Studies Workshop Participants219

Appendix II: Polish-Jewish Studies Workshop Agenda221

Index..... 223