

Contents

A Theoretical Principles of Manual Lymph Drainage

1 Anatomy and Physiology of the Circulation of the Blood	2	3 Physiology of the Lymphatic System, Lymph, and Interstitium	18
Blood	2	Loose Connective Tissue	18
Red Blood Cells (Erythrocytes)	2	Fixed and Mobile Cells	18
White Blood Cells (Leukocytes)	2	Fibers	19
Blood Platelets (Thrombocytes)	4	Ground Substance	19
Cardiovascular System	4	Function and Qualities	20
Arterial System	5	Adipose Tissue	20
Capillaries	6	Water Balance	20
Venous System	6	Protein Circulation and Transport	21
2 Lymphatic System	7	Physiology of the Exchange Processes between
Anatomy of Lymph Vessels and		Interstitium and Terminal Vessels	22
Lymph Nodes	7	Molecular Motion	22
Initial Lymph Vessels	7	The Starling Equilibrium	24
Precollectors	8	Function of Lymph Vessels	26
Lymph Collectors	8	4 Lymphedema	27
Lymph Nodes	9	Primary Lymphedema	28
Lymphatic Trunks	10	Secondary Lymphedema	28
Large Lymphatic Pathways	10	Possible Complications of Lymphedema	29
Lymphatic Pathways of the		Inflammation	29
Lower Extremities	12	Physical Reactions to Lymphedema	29
Lymphatic Pathways of the		Additional Indications for Manual Lymph Drainage	30
Upper Extremities	15	Phlebedema (Venous Edema, Phlebostatic Edema)	30
Drainage from the Abdomen	16	Lipedema	30
Drainage from the Thorax	16	Lipohypertrophy	30
Drainage from the Brain	16	Questions	31
Anastomoses	17	Answers	32

B Manual Lymph Drainage

5 Equilibrium and Balance as the Aim of the Massage	36	Contraindications	38
The Bathtub Example	36	Absolute Contraindications	38
Fluid Equilibrium	36	Relative Contraindications	38
Balance in Alternative Healing Methods	37	7 Effect of Manual Lymph Drainage on the Smooth
6 Indications and Contraindications for Manual Lymph Drainage	38	Muscles of Blood Vessels and Lymphangions ...	40
Indications	38	8 Diagnostic Examination and Edema
		Measurement	42

C The Technique of Manual Lymph Drainage

9 Massage Techniques	46	"Soldiers" Technique	66
The Nature of the Massage	46	Vibration, Final Effleurage	66
Duration and Intensity of the Massage	47	Treatment of the Back	67
Creating the Environment for		Effleurage	67
Optimal Treatment	47	Right Side of the Back	67
Treatment Guidelines for		Left Side of the Back	68
Manual Lymph Drainage	48	Extensors of the Spine	68
10 Treatments of the Individual Parts of the Body . .	49	Triangle between the Shoulder Blades	69
Treatment of the Neck	49	"Soldiers" Technique	70
Effleurage	49	Vibration and Final Effleurage	70
Profundus to Terminus	49	Treatment of the Buttocks	71
Occiput to Terminus	50	Effleurage	71
Tip of the Chin to the Profundus, then		Right Buttock	71
to the Terminus	50	Left Buttock	72
Fork Technique	51	Sacral Triangle	72
Shoulder Circles	51	Vibration and Final Effleurage	73
Shoulder Circles	51	Treatment of the Chest	74
Profundus to Terminus	51	Effleurage	74
Final Effleurage	51	Left Side	74
Treatment of the Face	52	Right Side	75
Effleurage	52	"Seven" Technique	76
Jaw Area	52	Final Effleurage	76
Nose	53	Treatment of the Abdomen	77
"Long Journey"	54	Effleurage	77
Treatment of the Eyes	55	Solar Plexus	77
Eyebrows	55	Colon Strokes	77
Forehead	55	Treatment of the Colon	78
Temple to Profundus	56	Weight Reduction Technique (Treatment
Profundus to Terminus	56	of the Small Intestine)	79
Effleurage	56	Treatment of Deep Lymph Vessels/Nodes	79
Treatment of the Arm	57	Final Effleurage with Breathing	79
Effleurage	57	11 Special Techniques	80
Upper Arm	57	Special Techniques for the Head	80
Elbow	58	Nose	80
Forearm	58	Eyes	81
Hand	59	Skull	82
Finger Treatment	59	Ears	82
Final Effleurage	59	Intraoral Drainage	83
Treatment of the Leg	60	Special Techniques for the Arm	84
Effleurage	60	Elbow	84
Thigh	60	Wrist	84
Knee	62	Special Techniques for the Leg	85
Lower Leg	63	Knee	85
Foot	63	Foot	86
Final Effleurage	63	Special Techniques for the Shoulder	87
Treatment of the Nape of the Neck	64	Mobilizing the Shoulder Blade Dorsally	87
Effleurage	64	Mobilizing the Shoulder Blade Ventrally	88
Profundus to Terminus	64	Glenohumeral Mobilization	89
Occiput to Terminus	64	Searching for Painful Points—Patient in
Back of the Head	65	the Lateral Position	89
Shoulders	65	Searching for Painful Points—Patient Supine	90
"Rabbit" Technique	65	Special Techniques for the Back	91
Skin of the Nape of the Neck	66	Intercostal Spaces	91

Extensors of the Spine	91	Affected Breast	97
Special Techniques for the Hips	92	Treatment of the Edematous Arm	98
Standing behind the Patient	92	Affected Breast	100
Standing in front of the Patient	93	Back	100
Standing next to the Patient	93	Treatment of Secondary Lymphedema
Special Techniques for the Chest	94	of the Leg	101
Intercostal Spaces	94	Lymph Nodes of the Neck	101
Breathing Technique	94	Axillary Lymph Nodes	101
Special Techniques for the Abdomen	95	Abdominal Skin	101
Wide Pelvis	95	Treatment of the Edematous Leg from
Narrow Pelvis	95	the Front	102
		Quadratus Lumborum Muscle	104
12 Treatment Model for Secondary Lymphedema . .	96	"Soldiers" Technique	104
Treatment of Secondary Lymphedema of the Arm . .	96	Skin of the Buttocks	104
Lymph Nodes of the Neck	96	Treatment of the Edematous Leg from
Healthy Breast	96	Behind	105

D Complementary Treatments

13 Complementary Treatments	108	Therapeutic Exercises and
Skin Care	109	Respiratory Therapy	121
Compression Therapy	109	Therapeutic Exercises	121
Bandaging	109	Respiratory Therapy	123
Compression Stockings	120	Meditative Aspects	123
		Taping	123

E Historical Background

Historical Background	128	First Publication about Dr. Vodder's
Preface to the First Edition 1978	129	Manual Lymph Drainage	132
Lymph Drainage—A New Therapeutic		Emil Vodder—His Life and Manual Lymph
Method Serving Cosmetic Care	132	Drainage	134
Appendix	136
Further Information	136
References	138
Index	139		