

Contents

Foreword	4
Chapter 1
From Whence He Came: A Foray into the Origins of Carl Zeiss
Family and Roots (1816–1834)	9
An Interview with Dr. Kathrin Siebert	16
Chapter 2
A Pioneering Spirit Is Born: Apprenticeship and Company Foundation
Apprenticeship under Friedrich Körner and Journeyman Years (1834–1845)	23
Founding of the Mechanical Workshop in Jena	34
Zeiss Builds His First Microscopes	43
Chapter 3
He Who Dares, Wins: Zeiss Establishes His Company
Setting up the Business (1847–1859)	51
An Interview with Prof. Dr. Michael Kaschke	64
A Booming Business and Social Recognition (1859–1866)	68
Chapter 4
Putting Theory into Practice: The Major Shift to Scientific Microscope Construction
Optics Based on Calculations	85
Dr. Timo Mappes Talks to Dr. Eric Betzig	96
The Rise from Optical Works to Enterprise (1873–1880)	100
Chapter 5
Looking to the Future: Preserving His Life's Work
Zeiss's Last Years (1880–1888)	115
Microscope Deliveries (1847–1889)	130
Evolution of the Workforce (1847–1889)	132
An Interview with Dr. Dieter Kurz	134
Appendix
Timeline	138
Sources and Literature	140
Photography	141
Acknowledgments	142	