

CONTENTS

Foreword to the fourth edition	II
--	----

Foreword to the first edition	13
---	----

Introduction –

Towards a leadership culture with “heart”	15
--	-----------

The founding intentions and work of the Medical Section

at the Goetheanum	20
Impulses which do not build on egoism	20
The threshold to the spiritual world	27
Moral techniques for social engagement	29
The Raphael Imagination as the inspiration for medical and therapeutic action	32
Future work perspectives and the question as to the qualities of the Second and Third Classes of the School intended by Rudolf Steiner	38
Work and goals of the Medical Section	41
How can a Christian style of leadership succeed?	44
Counter-images of a leadership practice that respects human dignity	48
The working principles set out by Rudolf Steiner	49
Centre and periphery of the Medical Section – the crucial change of perspective	52
The School collegium today – its appointment and dismissal practice	53
Funding modes within the School as illustrated by the Medical Section	54

From the Filder Group to the International Coordination of Anthroposophic Medicine/IKAM

The appointment of IKAM coordinators	58
IKAM's working capacity and efficiency	60
Why individual representatives and not collegiums to head the individual coordination fields?	62

Questions and answers about our leadership concept	65
Responsibility structures and working instruments of the Medical Section – an overview	76

The fields of work of the International Coordination of Anthroposophic Medicine (IKAM) and its meditative impulses	87
Conference of the Executive Councils of Anthroposophic Medical Associations	87
IVAA – International Federation of Anthroposophic Medical Associations – Coordination	89
International Coordination of Anthroposophic Medicines / IMKA	94
International Association of Anthroposophic Pharmacists / IAAP.	95
Research Council	100
International Coordination of Anthroposophic Medicine – School of Spiritual Science	102
The International Young Medics Forum	104
Inner development in our own profession – the path with the mantras of the Young Physicians Course	110
Clinic Coordination and the development of the Anthromed label	119
Anthroposophic nursing	121
International Coordination of Psychotherapy	128
Special needs education and social therapy Basics – structures – perspectives	141
Eurythmy therapy	150
Anthroposophic art therapy	161
Thoughts on the verse by Rudolf Steiner “See in thy Soul” from the perspective of therapeutic speech formation	165
Meditative practice with verses given by Rudolf Steiner for creative speech	168
The meditative practice of painting therapy	170
Meditations for anthroposophic music therapy	171
Meditative work for the sculptor	173
Anthroposophic Body Therapy	176
Anthroposophic midwives	183

International Coordination of Anthroposophic Non-medical Practitioners	184
Coordination of Nutrition	188
International Coordination of Medical Training	189
International Coordination of Anthroposophic Specialist Physicians	191
Anthroposophic dentists	193
Working Group of National Associations for and General Representative Bodies of Anthroposophic Medicine – Group of National Coordinators for Anthroposophic Medicine / GNCAM	196
International Coordination of Age Culture and Elderly Care	198
European Federation of Patients’ Associations for Anthroposophic Medicine (EFPAM)	202
Coordination of Public Relations	205
Joint work on a “breviary”	207
 Developmental steps of the Medical Section at the Goetheanum in the progression of Anthroposophic Medicine – in stages of 12 years each	 220
 Bibliography	 225
Finances of the Medical Section	229
Newsletter of the Medical Section, Summer 2014	230
Picture Credits	234
Notes	235