

Contents

|  |     |
|--|-----|
| Acknowledgements   | vii |
| CHAPTER ONE  |     |
| He Kupu Whakataki : Introduction                                      | i   |
| 1.1 Maori Writing in Contemporary Discourse                                  | 7   |
| CHAPTER TWO  |     |
| Myth and Memory: Functions and Methods                                       | 13  |
| 2.1 Myth and the Emergence of Maori Identity                                 | 13  |
| 2.2 Old Tales for a New Future: The Use of Myth in Maori Fiction             | 42  |
| 2.3 Memory in Narrative: In Search of a Maori Identity                       | 85  |
| CHAPTER THREE  |     |
| He Tuhinga Pakimaero : The Novels                                     | 111 |
| 3.1 Te Tumu : The Foundations – What It Means To Be Maori             | 113 |
| 3.2 Te Poupou : The Walls – Occupying the New Maori Space             | 157 |
| 3.3 Te Tahu : The Roof – Moving Towards Home                          | 201 |
| CHAPTER FOUR   |     |
| He Kupu Whakatepe : Conclusion  | 247 |
| 4.1 The Novel as Re-Interpreter of the Past and Guide to the Future          | 248 |
| 4.2 From a Literature of Survival to Novels of Empowermentand Pioneering | 252 |
| Bibliography   | 259 |
| Index  | 277 |