

111 Places

- A. H. Hale
Make haste! Get thee to an apothecary! | 10
- Alexandra Park
One of Bath's most magnificent secret vistas | 12
- Approach Golf Course
Enjoy a city-centre round with a view | 14
- Arthur Phillip's Grave
A place of pilgrimage for Australians | 16
- Avon Valley Railway
All aboard! The age of steam is still on a roll | 18
- Bartlett Street Antiques
Shopping for the past in style | 20
- Bath Abbey Tower Tour
212 steps to 360-degree panoramic-view heaven | 22
- Bath Artists' Studios
A warren of creative endeavour and community spirit | 24
- Bath Boating Station
Take a punt on a wildlife-spotting river trip | 26
- Bath City Farm
Feed the pigs and remember King Bladud | 28
- Beauford Square
Wood on the water, bad spelling and window taxes | 30
- Beau Nash Statue
Behold the King of Bath and the new social code | 32
- Beckford's Tower
Extravagant final retreat for wealthy arts patron | 34
- The Bell Inn
Legendary music pub owned by its customers | 36
- Bertinet Kitchen
Give us this day our daily French bread | 38
- Blind House
Historic lock-up in a criminally pretty location | 40
- Brown's Folly
Useless and irrational? Yes. Worth seeing? Yes! | 42
- Busy Mr Bowler of Bath
Nuts, bolts and pop at the Museum of Bath at Work | 44

C. E. Davis' Empire Hotel
A life's ambition for a Bath man of many talents | 46

Canary Gin Bar
Bath botanicals and a new gin craze | 48

The Casali Paintings
Rococo gems in the famous seat of learning | 50

Chai Walla
Fresh-faced business spicing up lunchtime | 52

Circulating Library Sign
Where books for hire became all the rage | 54

City of Bath College
What happens when town planning goes right | 56

Clapping in The Circus
Cheap thrills and sacred geometry | 58

Cleveland Bridge
Greek temples make for unprofitable tollhouses | 60

Cleveland House
The tale of a trap door over the canal | 62

Cleveland Pools
Open-air swimming revival at Bath's lido | 64

Combe Down Mines
Limestone legacy of the stone that built Bath | 66

Cross Letter
Saving money and saying more | 68

Deer at Dyrham Park
Four-legged friends and a Dutch connection | 70

Delia's Grotto
A duellist's love letters for a beautiful soprano | 72

Dundas Aqueduct
Stunning remnant of the Somersetshire Coal Canal | 74

Eastern Eye Restaurant
East meets West in impressive former ballroom | 76

Eddie Cochrane Memorial
A moving tribute to a rock and roll legend | 78

The Edge
Creation is key on a campus for all comers | 80

Eric Snook's
Old-school fun and games | 82

Fairfield House
A corner of Bath forever Rasta | 84

- Film Locations
Spot the stars on screen and in situ | 86
- The Forum
Grand art deco cinema, ready for its close-up | 88
- Frederic Edward Weatherly
Remembering the composer of 'Danny Boy' | 90
- Frederick Tranter
A treasure trove for cigar and tobacco lovers | 92
- Gainsborough Bath Spa
Relax like a Roman, but now in five-star luxury | 94
- Garden for the Blind
In praise of J. W. Morris and his tranquil oasis | 96
- George Bayntun
Prestigious bookbindery, now a living museum | 98
- Good Samaritan
Sculpted homage to good deeds done | 100
- Green Park Station
Train tickets swapped for flapjack | 102
- Grenville Monument
A fitting tribute to Cornish Civil War heroes | 104
- Grey Phone Box
Making a trunk call in elephant grey | 106
- Guildhall Market Pillar
Pay on the nail for your light-bulb moment | 108
- Hannah Taylor's Sampler
One of many treasures at the American Museum | 110
- Holloway Drinking Trough
Water for worn-out tummies and fatigued horses | 112
- Honey's Midford Cider
A true taste of Somerset – drink up ye zider! | 114
- Igor Ustinov Sculpture
Winged angel keeps it in the family at the Ustinov | 116
- John Rudge's Magic Lantern
Bath's little-known place in the history of cinema | 118
- John Wood's Drawing Set
Delicate instruments for Bath's grandest designs | 120
- Jolly's and the Peacock
A history of Bath's oldest department store | 122
- Julian House Bike Workshop
Two-wheeled venture gets homeless on their feet | 124

Katherine Fraser
The fruits of the loom keeping traditions alive | 126

Ken Loach and Bath City
Penalties meet Palmes d'Or at the community club | 128

Laundry Chimney
Airing Bath's Victorian laundry in public... | 130

The Lawrence Acquisition
A local portrait painter honoured at the Holburne Museum | 132

Little Solsbury Hill
Walk right out of the machinery | 134

Little Theatre
Historic cinema with its own story to tell | 136

Magalleria
Creative typography for the city's creative types | 138

Midford Castle
Hollywood tales and a real hero of war | 140

Minerva's Temple
A serious monument in a place of fun | 142

Mission Theatre
The show must go on! | 144

Moles
Stratocasters and stamp collectors juxtaposed | 146

Mr B's Reading Spa
A novel approach to sharing a passion for books | 148

Museum of East Asian Art
An Englishman's extraordinary collection | 150

The Mysterious Billboard
Innovative repurposing for theatrical promotion | 152

Nelson at the Apothecary
How Bath shaped Britain's heroic naval officer | 154

North Parade Toll House
Sax and violins are note-perfect for music lovers | 156

Octagon Chapel
A new form of worship at the surf-and-turf altar | 158

Old Labour Exchange
Bath's only remaining scars of war | 160

Old Orchard Street Theatre
If only the walls could talk | 162

On the Writers' Trail
Plaques galore for Bath's notable literary figures | 164

Orange Grove Police Station
Spend a penny in the old jail | 166

Our Lady and St Alphege
An unheralded Romanesque marvel in Oldfield Park | 168

Palladian Bridge
Ancient graffiti and icy tales at Allen's estate | 170

Park Farm
Bath on the gourmet map, one cheese at a time | 172

Penfold's Pillar Box
The missing link between postage and Danger Mouse | 174

The Princess and the Park
A tale of royal ankles and minding your manners | 176

The Rec Turnstiles
Elegant reminders of the Rec's sporting function | 178

Rolfey's Antiques
For everything you never knew you needed | 180

Rosewell House
Baroque townhouse that deserves a spotlight | 182

Shakespeare Memorial
A secluded spot to inspire a sonnet or two | 184

Sham Castle
Ralph Allen's vanity project on Claverton Down | 186

Sheep-spotting
Woolly ruminants help keep the place looking smart | 188

Sir Isaac Pitman Plaque
The 'time-saved-is-life-gained' shorthand inventor | 190

Smallcombe Garden Cemetery
Idyllic resting place for Bath's notable residents | 192

Society Café
Magic beans that brought a square to life | 194

St John's Hospital
A haven of tranquillity and generosity since 1174 | 196

St Mary's Church
Literary siblings' links to Bath's oldest church | 198

Star Inn
Anyone for a game of shove ha'penny? | 200

Stothert & Pitt Crane
An immovable link to Bath's industrial heyday | 202

Sunderland Street
Bath's shortest street and postman's paradise | 204

Thomas Butterfield Silver Sundial
Sun-kissed timepiece lights up the Herschel Museum | 206

Tea at the Royal Crescent
Champagne and cake behind a famous façade | 208

Tree Sculpture
An artistic vision of Bath's garden-loving roots | 210

Tucking Mill and 'Strata' Smith
The tranquil home of the father of geology | 212

Two Tunnels Greenway
Countryside gateway for two-wheeled explorers | 214

Uber
Alpine chic on Margaret's Buildings | 216

Victoria Bridge
A bridge by a brewer with a flair for maths | 218

Vintage to Vogue
The timeless art of looking fabulous | 220

Watchman's Box
Law-enforcer's hideout on Norfolk Crescent | 222

WF Dolman & Son
Keep an eye (and ear) out for the god of medicine | 224

Wig-powdering Room
A pampering stop-off for the man about town | 226

William Harbutt Bust
Art school pioneer who invented Plasticine | 228

William Oliver
Not to try his tasty invention would be crackers | 230