

Contents

Globalisation II

Cartoons

- 1 Dave Granlund, 22 July 2015 (climate change, global warming, tourism)
- 2 Pat Bagley, 16 April 2008 (resources, carbon footprint, poverty)
- 3 Stephanie McMillan, 24 July 2013 (textile industry, sweatshops, child labour)
- 4 Rodrigo, 5 February 2016 (tourism, cultural imperialism)
- 5 Marian Kamensky, 27 April 2012 (urbanization, pollution, industrialization)
- 6 Kjell Nilsson-Mäki, 23 April 2015 (refugees, migrant workers)
- 7 Dave Brown, 2013 (migrant workers, forced labour)
- 8 Marco de Angelis, 3 February 2009 (forced labour, child labour, global players)
- 9 Dave Granlund, 5 October 2009 (global players, cultural imperialism)
- 10 Seppo Leinonen, 16 August 2007 (consumption, shopping, media)
- 11 Signe Wilkinson, 27 September 2007 (outsourcing, unfair terms of trade)
- 12 Polyp (Paul Fitzgerald), UK (unfair terms of trade, resources, imbalance of trading)

Role Plays

- A • a volunteer for “Habitat for Humanity” who demands a dignified life for everybody
- 13 B • a CEO of an international trading company who thinks going green can be dangerous for the global economy
- 14 A • a CEO of a globally operating travel agency
- 14 B • a governor of a Caribbean island which is overrun by tourists
- 15 A • a social worker for the New Roots program that helps traumatized refugees
- 15 B • a citizen who is concerned about the mass immigration of refugees
- 16 A • a civil rights activist who wants to abolish modern-day slavery
- 16 B • a CEO of a global player who puts the blame on subcontractors
- A • a member of a rich family who believes the top 1 percent make the world go round
- 17 B • a representative of the remaining 99 percent who demands equal opportunities for everybody
- A • a delegate from a developing country who demands having an equal share in the global economy for his country
- 18 B • a delegate from an industrialized country who praises the benefits of globalisation for the world economy and the developing countries