

Contents

Acknowledgments	vii
Preface	xi
1 From the Ashes of Defeat to the Needs of a New Empire	1
2 “The Intellectual Bodyguard”: The Professors of Friedrich Wilhelm University	19
3 State and University: Finance, Control, and Academic Freedom	47
4 The Structural Model “Modern Research University” in National and International Comparison	71
5 Students’ Relationships to Professors, Finances, and the Social Order	105
6 Minorities, Women, Privilege, and Subculture	131
7 The Public Sphere and Political Culture	159
8 The University in Public Opinion, Issues and Movements of the Day	183
9 The University and World War I: Preparing, Fighting, and Struggling to Recover	217
10 A Tarnished Model among World Adaptors	237
Glossary	251
Bibliography	255
Index	263
About the Author	271