

CONTENT

INTRODUCTION	11
I. The Resurrection Hope in the Old Testament	17
1.1. Notion of Life in the Old Testament	17
1.1.1. Yahweh – the Living God	17
1.1.2. God – the Creator and Giver of Life	20
1.1.3. Humanity – Living Beings	22
1.1.4. Conclusion and Summary	25
1.2. Notion of Death in the Old Testament	25
1.2.1. Manifestation of Death	26
a) Death as a Metaphor	26
b) Death as a Power	27
1.2.2. Reaction of Israel to Death	29
a) A ‘Good’ Death	30
b) A ‘Bad’ Death	31
1.2.3. The Grave, Sheol and the Dead	33
a) Grave and Sheol	33
b) The Dead	38
1.2.4. Conclusion and Summary	38
1.3. The Power of God	39
1.3.1. Yahweh – the Lord of Life and Death	40
a) The Song of Moses	40
b) The Prayer of Hannah	41
1.3.2. Resurrection as a Return to or Escape from the Earthly Existence	42
a) The Miracle of Resurrection	42
b) Psalms of Lamentation and Thanksgiving	44
1.3.3. Translation/Ascension	46
a) The Translation of Enoch (Gen 5:24)	46
b) The Translation of Elijah (2 Kings 2:1-15)	47
1.3.4. Conclusion and Summary	48
1.4. From Death to Life	49
1.4.1. Resurrection as Restoration of God’s People	49
a) Hosea 6:1-3	50
1. Historical Background	50
2. Literary Type and Setting	51
3. Resurrection/Restoration	52

b) Hosea 13:14	53
1. Historical Background and Setting	53
2. Resurrection/Restoration	54
c) Ezekiel 37:1-14	55
1. Historical Background and Setting	55
2. Ezekiel's vision and its meaning	56
3. Resurrection/Restoration	59
1.4.2. The Isaiah Apocalypse (Isaiah 24 - 27)	61
a) Isaiah 25:8	62
1. Historical Background and Setting	62
2. Resurrection / Restoration	63
3. Conclusion and Summary	64
b) Isaiah 26:19	65
1. Historical Background and Setting	65
2. The Context of Isa 26:19	66
3. Resurrection/Restoration	67
4. Conclusion and Summary	70
1.4.3. Resurrection of the Dead in Dan 12:1-3	70
a) The Structure of the Book	71
1. Historical Background and Setting	71
2. The Social Setting	72
3. The Genre of Apocalyptic Eschatology in Dan 12:1-3	75
b) Resurrection / Restoration	77
1. The Nature of Resurrection	78
2. The Function of Resurrection	83
c) Conclusion	85
1.4.4. Conclusion and Summary	87
II. The Resurrection Hope in Palestinian Judaism	91
2.1. Rabbinic literature	92
2.1.1. God's Commandments	93
a) Obedience and Disobedience	93
b) Reward, Punishment and the World to Come	96
2.1.2. Death and Dying in Early Rabbinic Sources	99

a) Death and Dying in the Mishnah, Tosefta and in the Early Midrashic Compilations	99
b) Death and Dying in Talmud and Associated Midrashic Compilations	107
2.1.3. Resurrection Hope in Early Rabbinic Sources	110
a) The World to Come in the Mishnah, Tosefta and Early Midrashic Compilations	110
b) Resurrection of the Dead in the Mishnah and Tosefta	117
c) Resurrection of the Dead in the Early Midrashic Compilations	122
2.1.4. Resurrection Hope in Late Rabbinic Sources	127
a) The World to Come	128
b) Post-mortem Existence in the Rabbinic Literature	134
c) Resurrection hope	147
d) The Messiah Figure(s)	157
2.1.5. Conclusion and Summary	165
2.2. The Dead Sea Scrolls and the Resurrection Hope	167
2.2.1. Qumran Community and Messianic Expectations	168
a) Eschatological Background	170
b) Qumran and Two Messiahs	172
2.2.2. Resurrection Hope	179
a) The Discussion on Resurrection Belief in the Scrolls	180
b) Hodayot – the Thanksgiving Hymn	183
1. 1QH ^a 12:5 – 13:4	186
2. 1QH ^a 11:19-23 and 19:10-14	187
c) The Messianic Apocalypse (4Q 521)	191
d) The Pseudo-Ezekiel Manuscripts (4Q385, 4Q386, 4Q388)	193
e) The Instruction on the Two Spirits 1QS 3:13-4:26	196
2.2.3. Josephus and Essene Belief in Afterlife	200
2.2.4. Conclusion and Summary	203
2.3. The Book of Enoch (1Enoch 94-104)	206
2.2.1. Form and Setting	206
2.3.2. Reward and Punishment in a Day of Judgment (1 Enoch 102:4-104:8)	208
a) A Good Earthly Life of the Sinners (1 Enoch 102:4-103:2, 5-8)	209
b) Reward for the Righteous after their Death (1 Enoch 103:3-4, 103:7-104:8)	212

2.3.3. The Old Testament Tradition of Judgment and the Epistle of Enoch ...	216
2.3.4. The Resurrection Hope	217
a) 1 Enoch 102-104 and the Mode of Resurrection	217
b) The Image of Rising from Sleep	220
c) The Function of Resurrection in the Epistle of Enoch	221
d) 1 Enoch 22	223
2.3.5. Conclusion and Summary	227
2.4. 2 Maccabees 7	228
2.4.1. Form and Setting	228
2.4.2. The Story of Suffering and Vindication of the Righteous	230
a) The Tradition of Daniel 3 and 6	230
b) The Function of the Narrative in 2 Maccabees 7	232
2.4.3. The Resurrection Belief in 2 Maccabees 7	234
a) The Function of Resurrection	234
b) The Isaianic Tradition and 2 Maccabees 7	236
2.4.4. Conclusion and Summary	238
2.5. Conclusion and Summary	238
III. The Resurrection Hope in the Theology of Wolfhart Pannenberg	243
3.1. The Meaning of History	244
3.1.1. History as Promise and Fulfillment in the Old Testament	244
a) Contingency of History	244
b) Salvation History	248
3.1.2. History as Process – Tradition and Transmission	249
3.1.3. History as Universal History	251
a) Universal History and Hermeneutics	252
b) Universal History and Dogmatics	253
3.1.4. Revelation as History	255
3.2. Pannenberg's Claim of the Historicity of Jesus' Resurrection	260
3.2.1. The Problem of the Historicity of Jesus' Resurrection	260
a) Historical-critical Method	261
b) Historical Event	263
3.2.2. The Problem of Language Concerning the Historicity of Jesus' Resurrection	267
a) Analogy and Doxology	267
1. Analogical Language	267
2. Doxological Language	270

b) The Metaphor of the Resurrection from the Dead	272
3.2.3. Easter Traditions	275
a) The Appearances	276
1. Appearance of the Resurrected Christ to Apostle Paul	276
2. The Nature of the Appearances of the Resurrected Christ	278
b) The Empty Tomb Traditions	281
3.3. The Significance of Jesus' Resurrection	284
3.3.1. Resurrection as the End of History	285
a) Apocalyptic Eschatology	285
1. Old Testament Prophets and the Saving Character of the Resurrection Hope	285
2. Apocalyptic Writings and Transformation in Connection with the Resurrection	289
b) Jewish Apocalyptic Expectations and Their Meaning for the New Testament	291
1. Jewish Apocalypticism and Its Effect on Apostle Paul	292
2. The Relation of Jewish Apocalypticism to the Reality of Christ's Resurrection	294
3.3.2. Jesus' Resurrection as the Prolepsis for Universal Resurrection	297
a) Apocalyptic Eschatology and the Kingdom of God	297
1. Apocalyptic Eschatology as a Religious Perspective in the Old Testament and Judaism	298
2. The Kingdom of God as the Eschatological Consummation of God's Rule over Creation	301
b) Jesus as the Son of God and the Son of Man	304
1. The Arrival of the Kingdom of God as the Content of Jesus' Message	305
2. Confirmation of Jesus' Message as His Unity with God	307
3.3.3. Life and Death through Faith in Jesus Christ	311
a) Death and Finality	312
1. Anthropology as Man' Openness to the World	312
2. Death as the End?	314
b) Life and Eternity	320
1. Biblical Concept of the Hope for a Hereafter	320
2. The Relation between Belief in Immortality of the Soul and the Resurrection Hope	322
3.3.4. The Consummation of Human Beings in the Kingdom of God	327

a) Temporality and Eternity	327
1. God as the Creator and Loving Father	328
2. Time as Duration and Eternity as God's Presence	331
b) The Individual, the Work of Spirit, and the Return of Christ	334
1. Judgment and the Return of Christ.....	335
2. Judgment and the Work of the Spirit	338
3. The Triune God and the Consummation of Creation	340
3.4. Conclusion and Summary	343
CONCLUSION	349
ABBREVIATIONS	357
BIBLIOGRAPHY.....	359