

Table of Contents

Part I: Semantic Web

Web Services Composition Framework with Petri Net Based Schemas...	3
Ewa Ochmańska
Proposal of a New Rule-Based Inference Scheme for the Semantic Web Applications.....	15
Grzegorz J. Nalepa and Weronika T. Furmańska
Applying Caching Capabilities to Inference Applications Based on Semantic Web	27
Alejandro Rodríguez, Enrique Jimenez, Mateusz Radzinski, Juan Miguel Gómez, Giner Alor, Rubén Posada-Gomez, and Jose E. Labra Gayo
Semantic Web System for Automatic Plan Scheduling	39
Piotr Czerpak, Paweł Drozda, and Krzysztof Sopyła
Knowledge and Data Processing in a Process of Website Quality Evaluation	51
Janusz Sobecki and Dmitrij Žatuchin

Part II: Ontology Management and Applications

Syntactic Modular Decomposition of Large Ontologies with Relational Database	65
Paweł Kaplanski
Relational Database as an Ontology Framework.....	73
Andrzej Maciół
The Knowledge Generation about an Enterprise in the KBS-AE (Knowledge-Based System - Acts of Explanation)	85
Jan Andreasik
Information Retrieval in the Geodetic and Cartographic Documentation Centers	95
Tomasz Kubik and Adam Iwaniak
Visualization Framework of Information Map in Blog Using Ontology...	107
Nurul Akhmal Mohd. Zulkefli, Inay Ha, and Geun-Sik Jo
Semantic Data Integration in the Domain of Medicine	119
Beata Jankowska

Part III: Social Networks

Analysis of Social Network's Structural Properties in Huge Community Portal	135
Bernadetta Mianowska, Marcin Maleszka, and Krzysztof Juszczyszyn
Efficient Construction of $(d+1,3d)$ -Ruling Set in Wireless Ad Hoc Networks	147
Krzysztof Krzywdziński
A Case Study of Building Social Network for Mobile Carriers	157
Sewook Oh, Hojin Lee, Yong Gyoo Lee, and Kwang-Chun Kang
Modelling Dynamics of Social Support Networks for Mutual Support in Coping with Stress	167
Azizi Ab Aziz and Jan Treur
Data Portability across Social Networks	181
Pooyan Balouchian and Atilla Elci

Part IV: Agent and Multiagent Systems

A Novel Formalism to Represent Collective Intelligence in Multi-agent Systems	193
Juan José Pardo, Manuel Núñez, and M. Carmen Ruiz
A Formal Model for Epistemic Interactions	205
Paweł Garbacz, Piotr Kulicki, Marek Lechniak, and Robert Trypuz
Issues on Aligning the Meaning of Symbols in Multiagent Systems	217
Wojciech Lorkiewicz and Radosław P. Katarzyniak
Artificial Evolution and the EVM Architecture	231
Mariusz Nowostawski
On Multi-agent Petri Net Models for Computing Extensive Finite Games	243
Rustam Tagiew
Multi-agent Verification of RFID System	255
Ali Selamat and Muhammad Tarmizi Lockman
An Action Selection Architecture for Autonomous Virtual Agents	269
Lydie Edward, Domitile Lourdeaux, and Jean-Paul Barthès
Agent Architecture for Criminal Mobile Devices Identification Systems	281
Ali Selamat, Choon-Ching Ng, Md. Hafiz Selamat, and Siti Dianah Abdul Bujang

A Trading Mechanism Based on Interpersonal Relationship in Agent-Based Electronic Commerce	291
Tokuro Matsuo, Takaaki Narabe, Yoshihito Saito, and Satoshi Takahashi

Agent Based Architecture for Pricing the Services in Dynamic User/Network Environment	303
Drago Žagar, Slavko Rupčić, and Snježana Rimac-Drlje

Part V: Other Applications

Accuracy in Predicting Secondary Structure of Ionic Channels	315
Bogumil Konopka, Witold Dyrka, Jean-Christophe Nebel, and Malgorzata Kotulska

Secure Information Splitting Using Grammar Schemes	327
Marek R. Ogiela and Urszula Ogiela

Comparative Analysis of Neural Network Models for Premises Valuation Using SAS Enterprise Miner	337
Tadeusz Lasota, Michał Makos, and Bogdan Trawiński
