

Contents

Introduction	7
I. Bernd and Hilla Becher
1. Origins	20
2. Aesthetics	25
3. Reception	32
4. Teachings	35
II. Foundations of the Düsseldorf School
1. Points of departure	40
2. Themes and orientation	54
3. Conceptual Photography of the 1960s	61
4. Conventional methods of photography in the 1970s	67
III. Development of pictorial rhetorics
1. The switch to colour	79
2. Expansion of format	83
3. Construction	98
4. Digital and analogue abstraction	105
IV. Reflexive and self-referential aesthetics
1. Observation and re-organisation	121
2. Sociograms	127
3. Multiple functions	132
4. Reflection of media	138
V. Tradition
1. References to form	147
2. Critical engagement with painting	161
3. Genres	175
4. Reception	182
VI. Principle and difference
1. 'The Big, Still Picture' (Das große stille Bild)	186
2. "Finders"	190
3. "Fabricators"	199
4. Summary	210
Notes	217
Bibliography	235
Color section	251