

Preface ix

Uta Gräf's Philosophy xi

A Principle for All Disciplines xiii

Our Horses at Home xv

Effortless—But How?

The Independent Horse xxii

The “Psycho” Horse 1

Balance and Body Awareness for the Horse 5

Allow and Encourage Independence 6

Let the Horse Think Things Through! 11

■ Guest Contributor: Ingrid Klimke

What I Have Learned from Uta Gräf 14

Crookedness 15

Eager, but Not Rushing 19

Poll Up—Nose in Front of the Vertical 25

Allow the Horse to Work Under You 34

Less Is More 35

A Question of Timing 39

■ Contributions from: Christoph Hess,
Hannalore Brenner, Britta Näpel, and Dr.
Angelika Trabert

Strategy of the Soft Voice 39

Learn from the Para-Equestrians 40

Nine Steps to Drinking Coffee 45

More Expression Through
Suppleness 50

Easygoing without Tension 51

Relax, Even When It Is Difficult 53

How Do I Get My Horse in Front of the Leg? ... 56

Don't Worry about “Inverting”! 58

Fix a Problem without Tensing Up 62

Experiences from Our Daily Training 63

Narrow or Rolled Over—What to Do? 64

The Stretch—How Do I Do It? 66

Tight in the Poll: What to Do? 72

The Overeager Horse	75
The Horse “Drinks Coffee,” The Rider Slogs On	78
Bodybuilding for Your Horse	81
When the Horse Rushes Off	85
How Do I Improve the Bend?	87
Oversensitive and Spooky? The Thing about the Jungle.....	90
Tips and Tricks from Experts— Our Treasure Trove	93

Trouble-Free Interaction

The Brave Horse	96
Danger Is Looming!	97
Young Horses: Partners from the Beginning... ..	98
Natural Horsemanship— An Interview with Pat Parelli	100
Our Program for Initial Ground Education and Desensitizing.....	102

“Easygoing” with Groundwork and Trail Course.....

Longeing Helps Correct Issues.....	113
Work with Long Lines	115

A Question of Horse Care	120
Outside in Wind and Weather	121
Turnout and Social Contact	126

The Cool Rider

Effortless Riding Starts

in Your Head!	128
The “Psycho” Rider	129
What Is Talent?	130
Mental Training Helps!	133
Work with Mental Images	139
The Courage to Be Lazy	142
Just Breathe Deeply	144
What Fits? About Human and Horse Types ...	145

Easygoing Through the Test

Effortless Riding, Even in Competition	150
The Relaxed Way to Success.	151
Let the Horse Think Things Through— Even in the Arena	152
Resilience—The Secret to Emotional Strength	154
Emergency Measures in the Test	156

The Finale

Effortless and Effective—Has the Goal Been Reached?

Dino: Sniffing at St. George	161
“Daily Soap” with Helios!	162
DJ: On the Way to the Class of Kings	163
Dandelion: All Issues Gone!	164
The High Point: Le Noir Wins Hearts	165

Acknowledgments.....

“Treasure Trove”	170
------------------------	-----

Index

172