

Foreword

- 7 Why use a sketchbook?

The sketchbook

- 8 Which sketchbook?
- 11 Choosing a format

A book with personality

- 12 Where to begin?
- 14 Protecting your sketchbook
- 17 Notes are permitted
- 18 Journaling
- 21 Doodling will set you free
- 22 The right and wrong ways to draw

Tools

- 24 Specialty pens
- 27 Sepia ink
- 29 Colored pencils
- 31 Ballpoint pens
- 32 And, of course, pencils
- 36 Markers, glitter pens, and beyond
- 39 Watercolors
- 44 Collage

Expressing yourself

- 47 Visualizing your ideas
- 48 Blind contour drawing
- 51 Your line is you
- 52 Mistakes are allowed!
- 55 Drawing what you feel
- 56 Drawing is not photography
- 58 Letting imagination complete the picture
- 61 Drawing the invisible

The basics

- 62 Shot settings and westerns
- 64 Five types of shot settings
- 68 Getting a feel for composition
- 70 Weight and balance
- 72 Collected works
- 74 Perspective
- 78 Depth and perspective
- 80 Landscapes
- 83 Nature
- 84 Landscapes and time
- 87 Coloring landscapes
- 88 Landscapes in ink
- 90 Light and shadow
- 93 Depicting shadows

People

- 95 People are not objects
- 96 Friends
- 98 Passersby
- 101 Performers
- 103 Hide and seek
- 104 Use your head
- 106 Portraits and caricature
- 108 Nudes and proportion

Animals

- 110 “It won’t stop moving!”

Architecture

- 114 New and old places
- 117 Consider the everyday
- 118 Drawing buildings

The right place

- 120 Stay open
- 123 Good and bad places
- 124 Finding your spot
- 127 Don’t forget to draw the cars
- 128 Cars mark the era
- 130 Montages
- 132 Objects

Traveling

- 134 When in Rome, see what the Romans see
- 137 Travel drawings
- 138 The journeying artist is not a tourist
- 141 Drawing is a global language
- 142 The right place at the right time
- 144 Museums
- 147 Panoramas
- 149 Trifles and truffles

Taking it further

- 151 Reality is not reality is not reality
- 152 Everything is in flux
- 154 Redoing drawings
- 156 Using digital media
- 157 Whatever happened to da Vinci’s sketchbook?

Appendix

- 159 About the author
- 159 Also by the author