

Table of Contents

Foreword.....	9
Management Summary	13
About the Authors	20
Prof. Dr. Ralf T. Kreutzer	20
Karl-Heinz Land	21
Core theories on dematerialization—the redistribution of the world.....	22
1 Challenges in times of digital Darwinism	25
1.1 Digital Darwinism.....	25
1.2 Social Revolution	39
1.3 Paradigm shift in added value	49
2 The creative and destructive power of dematerialization	55
2.1 Dematerialization and the shift in added value	55
2.2 Networking as a driver of dematerialization	73
2.3 Theory of zero marginal costs	83
2.4 Promoting the development of new business models by dematerialization	91
3 The redistribution of the world of work	99
3.1 Why we should think about the redistribution of work	99
3.2 Routine work was and will be replaced	101
3.3 Even cognitive work is being increasingly replaced	107
3.4 High-tech robots are taking over physical work in other fields	121
3.5 Digitalization of creative and social tasks	128
3.6 Dissolving classical company structures	136
3.7 The future of work—work of the future?	140

4	Risk analysis of existing employment relations—estimation of consequences.....	147
4.1	Why the state has to make its contribution!	147
4.2	Which occupational groups are particularly endangered?	150
4.3	A new (business) task: Reorganizing employment relationships	158
4.4	The battle over working time.....	162
4.5	Social and educational-political framework conditions	168
5	Safeguarding a Digital Transformation	173
5.1	The necessity of digital transformation	173
5.2	Digital Maturity Model as Analysis and Creation Model	183
5.2.1	The basic Concept of the Digital Maturity Model	183
5.2.2	Dimension: Strategy	184
5.2.3	Dimension: Leadership	184
5.2.4	Dimension: Products	185
5.2.5	Dimension: Operations	186
5.2.6	Dimension: Culture	186
5.2.7	Dimension: People	187
5.2.8	Dimension: Governance	187
5.2.9	Dimension: Technology	187
5.3	Examples of successful digital transformations	188
6	Incremental change, business model expansion or core shift	191
6.1	Incremental change.....	192
6.2	Business model extension	193
6.3	Core Shift.....	197
7	Outlook into the future	201
	Bibliography.....	205