

List of Contents

Foreword by Peter Upton	9
Dedication	11
Preface by Helga el-Tahawy	12
Foreword by Kirsten und Bernd Radtke	16
A Curious Coincidence	17
Preparations for the First Preliminary Tahawy Studbook	25
Registering the Bedouin Horses by the Desert	27
Hunting with Horses, Falcons and Salukis	44
The Saluki Hound	47
The oldest known Photograph of a Saluki Hound.	49
Impressions of Hunting Life in the Desert	50
International Hunting Parties in the Desert	52
Camels	55
Wolfgang Bitterle's Adventure Bringing his Tahawy-Horse to Europe by Boat	58
The First two Saluki in the West came from the Tahawy in 1895 by Brian Duggan	64
Of Sheikhs, Arab Judges, Beys and Omdahs	73
The Omda	74
Historical Background of the Terms OMDA and Sheikh	74
Bedouin Tribes in Egypt.
Names translated and commented upon by Basil Al Jadaan:	78
Lady Anne Blunt and the Tahawy	82
Birth of a Foal, Training for Racing, and Tahawy Bedouin
Horse Breeding	89
Bringing up Foals	90
Training the young Horses for the Races	93
The Breeding Principles of the Tahawy	98
Performance	101
Obedience, Courage and Intelligence	101
Exterior	101
The Hamdan Stables Studbook	105
A Remarkable Discovery (Nazeer's Tahawy ancestry)	108
The Pedigrees of Sheikh Soliman	110
Foreign Names in Tahawy Pedigrees	114
Pedigrees of Sheikh Abu Sitta	138
Old Bedouin Horse Certificates obtained by the Tahawy from other Bedouin Tribes	157
Excerpts of Sheikh Abdallah el Tahawy's Herdbook	170
Tahawy Horses present in the Egyptian RAS and EAO Studbooks	174
And, finally, here are listed Tahawy Horses found in the Records/Registers of the EAO and the WAHO	183
Epilogue	186
Acknowledgements	188
Some Tahawi Horse Ancestors in Arabian Bloodlines Today, by Joe Ferris	193