

Contents

Acknowledgements	7
Central Periphery? Art, Culture and History of the Jazira (Northern Mesopotamia, 8 th –15 th centuries): Introduction Martina Müller-Wiener and Lorenz Korn	9
Taxing, Trading and Ruling in the Early Islamic Jazira Chase F. Robinson	19
Processes of Regionalisation in Late Antique and Early Islamic Bilād al-Shām and al-Jazīra: Material Culture and the Organisation of Space Martina Müller-Wiener	37
The Architecture of the Abbasid Residence at ar-Raqqā/ar-Rāfiqa – Aspects of cultural interaction Ulrike Siegel	71
Practitioners of the Mathematical and Medical Sciences and their Relationship to the Jazira from the ninth to the fourteenth centuries Sonja Brentjes	97
The Life and Times of the Artuqid Ruler Najm al-Dīn Alpı (ruled 548/1154–572/1176) Carole Hillenbrand	111
Late Antique Architectural Sculpture at the Mayyāfāriqīn Mosque (Silvan Ulu Cami) Elif Keser-Kayaalp and Linda Wheatley-Irving	125
The Artuqid Residence at Āmid (Diyarbakır) Lorenz Korn	153
The Amid-Mardin Triangle as a Node of Routes in the 12 th and First Half of the 13 th Century, with a brief look at two subsequent periods Thomas A. Sinclair	183
The Frontispiece Problem in the Early 13 th -Century Kitāb al-Aghānī Robert Hillenbrand	199
Messianic Expectations Among Anatolian Turkmens – Heritage from Central Asia or local syndrome? Şevket Küçükhüseyn	229

Mosul: A Centre of Artistic Production During the Early Ilkhanid Period Annette Hagedorn	239
The Berlin Dragon Door-Knocker in its Scientific and Historical Context Joachim Gierlich	261