

Contents

| | |
|---|-----------------|
| Translator's preface: making the imaginary accessible – translating Einstein's Opponents | page vii |
| Preface | xix |
| Abbreviations | xxi |
| Introduction | 1 |
| 1 The world riddle solvers | 15 |
| 1.1 The dark side of the popularization of science | 15 |
| 1.2 The phenomenon of world riddle solving | 20 |
| 1.3 Contexts of world riddle solving | 23 |
| 1.4 The world riddle solvers' conception of science | 41 |
| 1.5 The anti-academic attitude and dissociation from academic research | 58 |
| 1.6 Provisional appraisal of world riddle solving | 62 |
| 2 The confrontation with the theory of relativity | 66 |
| 2.1 The triumphal march of the theory of relativity in the public sphere | 66 |
| 2.2 The mental block to reception | 76 |
| 2.3 The defensive attitude to the "attack" of modern physics | 81 |
| 3 The debate on the content of the theory of relativity | 90 |
| 3.1 The criticism of the reorganization of fundamental physical concepts by the theory of relativity | 91 |
| 3.2 Two conceptions of science | 147 |
| 3.3 The content-based accusations of plagiarism | 157 |
| 4 Marginalization and protest: the strategic dispute with the theory of relativity | 176 |
| 4.1 Marginalization | 177 |

| | | |
|-----|--|-----|
| 4.2 | Argumentative strategies against marginalization | 216 |
| 4.3 | Network formation and protest organizations of Einstein's opponents | 237 |
| | Conclusion | 307 |
| | References | 313 |
| | Secondary literature | 313 |
| | Sources | 324 |
| | Quoted newspaper and periodical articles | 348 |
| | Unpublished sources | 351 |
| | Index | 352 |