

Table of Contents

INTRODUCTION	7
1. FROM SLAVERY TO LIBERTY: The Story of Hagar and Ishmael	9
A gift from Pharaoh	9
A lesson on slavery	10
Voluntary slaves or slave holders?	11
Hagar, the forbidden fruit	12
Hagar, the humiliated	14
Hagar, the blessed	16
Your son will be born free	17
God hears and sees	20
Second encounter with the angel	21
God was with Ishmael	21
Free at last	22
Conclusion 1	24
2. GOD'S PROMISES TO ABRAHAM AND ISHMAEL: God Is Faithful ..	25
That Ishmael might live before you	26
Great nation	28
Great name	29
Blessing for all the families of the earth	31
As the dust and the stars	32
MAP A: Abrahamic religions	34
From Nile to Euphrates	35
Sharing the promised land	36
Twelve princes	38
CHART I: The twelve	40
A special blessing for Isaac	40
Mercy and love for all	42
Conclusion 2	42
3. THE CHILDREN OF THE EAST: Their Identity and Territory ..	44
The sons of Keturah included into Abraham's spirituality	44
Their territory: the Land of the East	46
The Desert of Shur	47
MAP B: The Arabian Desert I	50
An alternative location for Mount Sinai	50
MAP C: The borders of Canaan	54
The scope of the territory	55

The Desert of Paran	55
MAP D: The Arabian Desert II	57
Conclusion 3	60
4. THE ARABS: Helpers of Their Messianic Brothers	61
The Children of Arabia	61
Sheba and Dedan: heirs to Cush	62
CHART II: Sheba and Dedan	63
MAP E: Migration of Cush	64
Midian: intermarriage between Abraham's and Ham's descendants	66
Edom went east	67
CHART III: The Children of the East	68
"Reuel" = Friend of God	71
The special message of structural parallels	73
Elijah and the Arabs	74
Conclusion 4	76
5. THE EGYPT-ISHMAEL CONNECTION:
Joseph, Moses, Jethro, and Job	78
The Joseph story	78
There is a balm in Gilead	79
Living between two poles: Egypt and the land of the East	80
MAP F: The Egypt-Ishmael connection I	81
A mixture of Abrahamic nations	82
Joseph in Egypt	83
Moses flees from Egypt to Ishmael	84
The priest of Midian: Reuel II	85
Genesis was written in Arabia	87
The story of Job took place in Arabia	89
CHART IV: Job and his friends	90
The classical exodus	91
MAP G: The Egypt-Ishmael connection II	93
Conclusion 5	94
6. MOAB AND AMMON: Arabs Prepared the
Way for the Messiah	95
Incest among God's children	95
Separation not due to incestuous origin	97
Protected enemies	97
Ruth the Moabite, mother of King David and Jesus the Messiah	99

Refuge-givers for the persecuted	101
Executors of judgement	102
Promises for our time	103
Conclusion 6	104
7. EASTERN WISDOM: A Creed of Peace and Virtue	105
The book of Proverbs	106
The words of Agur	107
Five poetic quartets	109
The words of Lemuel	111
The virtuous woman	112
The sages of the East	113
Conclusion 7	114
8. HEROES OF THE EAST: From Violence to Non-Violence	115
Caleb, the fearless "Muslim"	115
Jael, the unscrupulous Arab heroine	117
The Rechabites: no idolatry, no alcohol, no settling	119
Jabez, hero of prayer	121
Other children of the East	123
Apostle Paul and his trip to Arabia	123
Conclusion 8	127
9. THE INCENSE ROAD: Connection between East and West	129
Keturah means incense	129
MAP H: The Incense Road	130
The three Mosaic incense laws	130
Famous caravans on the Incense Road	131
Balaam, prophet of Arabia	133
Incense and prayer	135
Song of Songs and its interpretations	136
Shulamite, Arab bride of the Messiah	137
Love between Abraham's children	139
Sexual purity, a treasure from the East?	141
Shulamite's deep longing	142
Muhammad in Song of Songs	143
Conclusion 9	144
EPILOGUE	146