

Contents

1. Introduction: Subject, Methodology	1
2. The Emancipation from Roman Law and the Change in the Sources of Constitutional Law	13
3. Elements of the Emerging Public Law	21
4. Reichspublizistik , Natural Law, International Law, Gute Policey	27
5. Public Law between Revolution and Restoration	45
6. St. Paul's Church ( Paulskirche )	55
7. Imperial State Law	59
8. Administrative Law in the State of the Early Industrial Society	67
9. The Theory of State Law and Administrative Law under the Weimar Constitution	73
10. Controversies over Method and General Theories of the State	79
11. Administrative Law in the Weimar Republic	95
12. The National Socialist State and Its Public Law	101
13. Germany's Legal Status, Reconstruction, Two States	119
14. The New "Value System" ( Wertordnung ) and the Restoration of the Rechtsstaat	127
15. The Social and Interventionist State of the Federal Republic	155
16. The State Law, International Law, and Administrative Law of the GDR	173
17. European Law and International Law	179
18. Reunification	185

19. Globalization and the Future of the State	191
20. Conclusion	201
Further Reading	203
Index	205
Name Index	213