

Table of Contents

Acknowledgements — VII

List of Contributors — 1

List of Figures, Pictures and Tables — III

Abbreviations — V

Maija Ojala-Fulwood, Ulla Ijäs and Pirita Frigren

Mobility from the Long Term Perspective — 1

Part I Movement of Labor

Maija Ojala-Fulwood

Mobility of goldsmiths in the Baltic Sea Region 1470–1620 — 29

Riitta Laitinen

The necessary and undesirable mobility of the lower classes in seventeenth-century Swedish towns — 53

Anitta Kynsilehto

Assessing skillfulness: On Maghrebi women's access to the labor market in France — 77

Pirita Frigren

Finns as mobile maritime labor in coastal ports of the United Kingdom, 1850–1930 — 93

Mari Korpela and Maija Ojala-Fulwood

Seasonal labor migration as a fun lifestyle? — 123

Part II Individuals and Communities

Ella Viitaniemi

Urban seasonal workers and rural church constructions in eighteenth-century Finland — 147

Ulla Ijäs

The mobile urban elite's material culture in eighteenth- and nineteenth-century northern Baltic cities — 169

Henrik Mattjus

Localized immigrants: Tampere, 1918 — 189

Samu Pehkonen

Impromptu facts and moral panic: the Roma people and local communities — 217

Ilaria Tucci

In response to migration policies and to the militarization of territories: Activism in the community of Lampedusa — 239

Bibliography — 265

Subject index — 303