

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Acknowledgements	7
Dena Freeman: Foreword	9
Susanne Epple: Introduction	11

I. TRANSFORMATION AND MANIPULATION OF SOCIAL DIFFERENCE

Susanne Epple: The transformation of status groups in Ethiopia. Recent observations	33
Samuel Tibebe: The chances and limitations of integration through conversion to evangelical Christianity. The case of the Manja in Dawro, southern Ethiopia ...	49
Bosha Bombe: Heritages of slavery and status transformation. Evidence from Ganta, Gamo highlands of southern Ethiopia	65
Susanne Epple and Fabienne Braukmann: Overcoming layers of marginalization. Adaptive strategies of the Bayso and the Haro people of Lake Abbaya, southern Ethiopia	79
Graziano Savà: Code-switching from Bayso and Haro to Amharic as a status-change strategy	101
Hermann Amborn: Continuity and change in the relationship between artisans and farmers in southern Ethiopia	121

II. PERSISTANCE OF MARGINALIZATION

Desalegn Amsalu: The social reproduction of marginalization among the Kumpal-Agaw of northwest Ethiopia	139
Kiya Gezahegne: Living on the margins in the Rayya Qobbo highlands. Slave descendants in contemporary north Wollo, Amhara Region	157
Alexander Meckelburg: Minority integration and citizenship expansion. Observations from the Mao and Komo groups in western Ethiopia	173

Sayuri Yoshida: From social differentiation to discrimination. Changes in the relationship between the Kafa and the Manjo of southwestern Ethiopia193

Kirsi Leikola: Talking Manjo. Manipulating a social boundary through new linguistic resources219

Eike Haberland: On the problems of hunters and special castes in Northeast and East Africa241

III. ANNEXES

Glossary of terms in Ethiopian languages269

List of contributors275

Index of persons279