

Contents

Acknowledgements	XI
List of Illustrations	XII
Notes on Contributors	XIV

Introduction 1

Mark Towsey and Kyle B. Roberts

PART 1

Empire and Enlightenment

- 1 Building Religious Communities with Books: The Quaker and Anglican Transatlantic Libraries, 1650–1710 33
Louisiane Ferlier
- 2 Poetry and Civic Urbanism in the Coffee-House Library in the Mid-Eighteenth Century 52
Markman Ellis
- 3 Of Mudfish, Harpsichords and Books: Libraries and Community in Eighteenth-Century Jamaica 73
April G. Shelford
- 4 Affleck Generations: The Libraries of the Boswells of Auchinleck, 1695–1825 98
James J. Caudle
- 5 Sedition, Revolution and Libertinism in Eighteenth-Century Brazil: The Library of Naturalist José Vieira Couto 123
Júnia Ferreira Furtado

PART 2

Revolution and Nation Building

- 6 Uncommon Knowledge: Late Eighteenth-Century American Subscription Library Collections 149
Cheryl Knott

- 7 Reading Sheffield: Sheffield Libraries and Book Clubs,
1771–1850 174
 Loveday Herridge and Sue Roe

- 8 Challenging Institutional Ambitions: The Practice of Book
Exchanges at the New York Society Library, 1789–1795 201
 Rob Koehler

- 9 A “Quaint Corner” of the Reading Nation: Romantic Readerships in Rural Perthshire, 1780–1830 218
 Katie Halsey

PART 3

Institutionalisation and Expansion

- 10 From Private Devotion to “Public” Education: Northern Dissenting
Academy Libraries and Their Benefactors 239
 Rachel Eckersley

- 11 The Foundation of Plymouth Public Library: Cultural Status,
Philanthropy and Expanding Readerships, 1810–1825 262
 Annika Bautz

- 12 Reading on the Edge of the Atlantic: The Easton Library
Company 286
 Christopher N. Phillips

- 13 Crafting Respectability: The Politics of Class at the Mechanic
Apprentices’ Library of Boston 304
 Lynda K. Yankaskas

PART 4

Public Libraries

- 14 Reading Publics: Books, Communities and Readers in the Early History of American Public Libraries 325
 Tom Glynn

- 15 From Voluntary to State Action: Samuel Smiles, James Silk
Buckingham and the Rise of the Public Library Movement in Britain 349
 Alistair Black

Bibliography of Secondary Works 371

Index 398