

Contents

About the Cover Image — V

Preface — VII

Lothar Schilling / Jakob Vogel

State-Related Knowledge: Conceptual Reflections on the Rise of the Modern State — 1

Part I: Defining the Fields of the State

Jani Marjanen

State and Civil Society in the Diffusion of Agricultural Knowledge in Sweden and Finland, 1739–1830 — 21

Helge Wendt

Transfer of Knowledge, the State, and Economy in the Cuban Coal Question (Nineteenth Century) — 34

David Do Paço

Patronage and Expertise: The Creation of Trans-Imperial Knowledge, 1719–1848 — 48

Part II: Circulating State-Related Knowledge

Lothar Schilling

'Intelligencers' (advertisement sheets) as Media of State-Related Knowledge? — 65

Jean-Luc Chappey

The Société des Observateurs de l'homme (1799–1804) and the Circulation of State-Related Knowledge under Napoléon — 88

Hjalmar Fors / Jacob Orrje

Describing the World and Shaping the Self: Knowledge-Gathering, Mobility and Spatial Control at the Swedish Bureau of Mines — 107

Jakob Vogel

Lost in Imperial Translation? Circulating Mining Knowledge between Europe and Latin America around 1800 — 129

Part III: Negotiating Scales and Spaces of the State

Isabelle Laboulais

Territorialisation and Logistics of Knowledge and Learning: The Case of Mineral Resource Surveys in France in the Eighteenth Century — 149

Regina Dauser / Niels Grüne

“Political-Economic Principles” and Local Interests of Reception: Peripheral Authorisation of Knowledge in the Agrarian Policy of the Electoral Palatinate (ca. 1750–1800) — 166

Alexander van Wickeren

Territorialising Atlantic Knowledge: The French State Tobacco Monopoly and the Globalisation of the Havana Cigar around the Mid-Nineteenth Century — 181

Index of Persons — 197