

Content

1. Introduction	1
2. Theories of Adaptive Efficiency and the Determinants of Crisis Resilience	5
2.1 Definitions of the Main Concepts and Outline of the Analytical Framework	5
2.2 Mancur Olson's Account of Adaptive Efficiency	12
2.2.1 Olson's General Account	12
2.2.2 Olson's Account of the Determinants of Economic Institutions	13
2.2.3 Olson's Account of the Determinants of Crisis Resilience	16
2.2.4 Summary and Limits of Olson's Account	25
2.3 North, Wallis & Weingast's Account of Adaptive Efficiency	27
2.3.1 NWW's General Account	27
2.3.2 NWW's Account of the Determinants of Economic Institutions	30
2.3.3 NWW's Account of the Determinants of Crisis Resilience	36
2.3.4 Summary and Limits of NWW's Account	42
2.4 The Missing Aspect of Adaptive Efficiency - The Costs of Adaption and the Importance of Structural Stability	45
2.5 Summary of the Previous Discussion - The Theoretical Concept of Adaptive Efficiency	48
3. The Empirical Approach to Studying the Determinants of Crisis Resilience	55
3.1 Review of the Empirical Literature on Institutions, Interest Groups and Growth	55
3.2 Outline of the Empirical Approach to Testing the Determinants of Crisis Resilience	60
4. The Empirical Analysis of Adaptive Efficiency during the Great Recession 2008 to 2012	67
4.1 The Definition of the Dependent Variables	67
4.1.1 Literature Review and Discussion of Potential Dependent Variables	67
4.1.2 Operationalizing the Dependent Variables Representing Crisis Resilience ..	71
4.2 The Selection of Control Variables and Control Models	77
4.2.1 Literature Review of Potential Control Variables	77
4.2.2 Selecting Control Variables	83

4.3 The Empirical Analysis Part I: Economic Institutions and Crisis Resilience.....	92
4.3.1 Rule of Law and Crisis Resilience	93
4.3.2 Business Regulations and Crisis Resilience	104
4.3.3 Labor Regulations and Crisis Resilience.....	115
4.3.4 Financial Regulations and Crisis Resilience.....	132
4.3.5 Government Size and Crisis Resilience	139
4.3.6 Exchange Rate Regimes and Crisis Resilience.....	146
4.3.7 Summary – Economic Institutions and Crisis Resilience.....	153
4.4 The Empirical Analysis Part II: Political Institutions, Interest Group Activity and Crisis Resilience	164
4.4.1 Political Institutions and Crisis Resilience	165
4.4.2 Interest Group Activity and Crisis Resilience	180
4.4.3 Summary - Political Institutions, Interest Group Activity and Crisis Resilience.....	190
5. Conclusion and Outlook.....	195
Appendices.....	199
References.....	362