

Contents

Foreword	vii
Maps	ix
I Background	1
II The Situation to 18 November 1941	5
III The Situation in Context	9
1. Terrain	9
2. Weather	11
3. Visibility	11
4. Balance of Forces	12
5. Weapons Comparison	13
6. British Forces	15
7. German–Italian Forces	18
8. Positions	25
9. Maps	27
10. Clock Times	27
IV The Course of the Battle	29
A. The British Eighth Army Launches the Attack	29
B. The Afrika Korps Accepts Battle	34
C. The Armoured Battle and Operational Movements	41
The Decisive Engagement	43
Subsidiary Fighting	48
The High Point	49
The German Drive Into the Strategic Depth	51

D.	The Crisis South-east of Tobruk	60
	Attrition of the DAK at Capuzzo and Bardia	62
	The Situation on the Night of 26 November	63
	The DAK Thrusts West	65
E.	The Bel Hamed Pocket	67
F.	The Battle is Over; The Fight Continues	73
V	Conclusion	77
	a) Historical Considerations	77
	b) Tactical Considerations	78
VI	Sources	81
VII	Annotations and Abbreviations	83
	Index	87