
Contents

1	Introduction	1
2	Danishness and Swedishness in Academic Discourse	9
2.1	Danishness: Small and Proud	11
2.2	Swedishness: The Good State, Social Trust, and Forest Solitude	24
3	Identity and Integration	37
3.1	Personal Identity	40
3.2	Social Identity and Social Groups	43
3.3	Collective Identity	52
3.3.1	The Social Construction of Collective Identity	55
3.3.2	Codes of Collective Identity Construction	60
3.3.3	The Discursive Construction of Collective Identity	64
3.4	National Identity	74
3.5	Identity, Cultural Heterogeneity, and Integration	81
4	Methodology	87
4.1	Choice of Material	87
4.1.1	'Classic' Literature	88
4.1.2	Schoolbooks	91
4.2	Analysis of the Material	93
5	(Re-)Constructing Danishness and Swedishness	97
5.1	Danishness	97
5.1.1	A Small State in the World	97
5.1.2	Hyper-Modernism: Be Whoever You Want to Be	108
5.1.3	The Unity of Folk and (Welfare) State	132

5.2	Swedishness	135
5.2.1	Humanitarian Superpower	135
5.2.2	Välfärdssverige	143
5.2.3	The Multicultural Society	152
5.2.4	Individual Freedom	165
6	Collective Identity and Integration Policy	187
6.1	The Danish Case	188
6.1.1	Danishness and Cultural Heterogeneity	188
6.1.2	Notions of Cultural Heterogeneity in Danish Integration Policy	199
6.2	The Swedish Case	206
6.2.1	Swedishness and Cultural Heterogeneity	206
6.2.2	Notions of Cultural Heterogeneity in Swedish Integration Policy	216
7	Conclusion	223
	References	229
	Material	241