

111 Places

- 1___ Abbey House
Cambridge's most stately home | 10
- 2___ The ADC Theatre
A springboard to stardom | 12
- 3___ All Saints' Church
A masterpiece of Victorian Gothic Revival | 14
- 4___ The American Cemetery
'In proud memory of their valor' | 16
- 5___ Anna Maria Vassa Memorial
'But one, a hapless orphan, slumbers here' | 18
- 6___ Arjuna Wholefoods
Doing you good, naturally | 20
- 7___ Art at Addenbrooke's
More pictures than patients | 22
- 8___ Arts Picturehouse
The phoenix rises, again | 24
- 9___ Ascension Parish Burial Ground
Genius beneath our feet | 26
- 10___ The Beechwoods
A walk on the wild side | 28
- 11___ The Bells of Great St Mary's
Ring the changes with Cambridge Surprise Major | 30
- 12___ Betty Wu Lee Garden
How pineapples helped to create a garden | 32
- 13___ Bin Brook
The other Cambridge river | 34
- 14___ The Brick Tree
A single garden for all the world's habitats | 36
- 15___ Caius Court
Unhealthy Cambridge | 38
- 16___ The Cambridge Blue
Top tipples, best beers and winning wines | 40
- 17___ Cambridge Buddhist Centre
A strange thread linking barwdy comedy to Buddhism | 42
- 18___ Cambridge Cheese Co.
Hello! Is it Brie you're looking for? | 44

- 19_____ Cambridge Escape Rooms
Game on for those little grey cells | 46
- 20_____ Cambridge Junction
Up the Junction, where art meets life | 48
- 21_____ Cambridge Satchel Company
Bags of success | 50
- 22_____ Castle Mound
Next stop – the North Pole | 52
- 23_____ Centre for Computing History
From mainframes to microprocessors | 54
- 24_____ Charles Darwin Sculpture Garden
The gentleman naturalist before he was famous | 56
- 25_____ Cherry Hinton Chalk Pits
The white cliffs of Cambridge | 58
- 26_____ Church of the Holy Sepulchre
Christianity in the round | 60
- 27_____ Churchill College
Art for education's sake | 62
- 28_____ Clip 'n Climb
How high can you go? | 64
- 29_____ The Clough Gates
Holding out for academic recognition for women | 66
- 30_____ The Cook Memorial
'He left nothing unattempted' | 68
- 31_____ The Corpus Clock
Time is not on your side | 70
- 32_____ Cromwell's Head
Protecting the Protector | 72
- 33_____ David Parr House
A small artistic miracle | 74
- 34_____ Dinky Doors
Wonder as you wander | 76
- 35_____ Disaster at the Fitz
Why you should always do up your shoelaces | 78
- 36_____ The Eagle
Beer and the secret of life | 80
- 37_____ Eddington
An inspirational, aspirational new community | 82
- 38_____ Emma's Duck Pond
Getting the bird | 84

- 39___ Fenner's
Cricket, lovely cricket (and tennis) | 86
- 40___ Fitzbillies
Possibly the stickiest buns in the world | 88
- 41___ Flower Trail
Daisies with a difference | 90
- 42___ foodPark and Food Trucks
Real food, not fast food | 92
- 43___ The Fort St George
An ancient connection to the Indian subcontinent | 94
- 44___ The Free Press
What the papers said | 96
- 45___ G. David Bookseller
Conspicuously inconspicuous since 1896 | 98
- 46___ The Girton Geese
Worth taking a gander | 100
- 47___ Godfrey Washington Memorial
Almost an American in Cambridge | 102
- 48___ Gwen Raverat Plaque
Tribute to a charming Cambridge classic | 104
- 49___ The Heong Gallery
A stable full of culture | 106
- 50___ Histon Road Cemetery
'Chiefly for the middle classes of society' | 108
- 51___ Hobson's Conduit
Water, plumb in the centre of town | 110
- 52___ Hodson's Folly
Pomp and circumstance by the river | 112
- 53___ The Homecoming
Classicism versus social realism | 114
- 54___ Hop-On Hop-Off Bus
Look, listen and learn all about Cambridge | 116
- 55___ Hope Street Yard
Serendipity and seduction | 118
- 56___ IWM Duxford
A museum in the air | 120
- 57___ Institute of Astronomy
A date with the solar system | 122
- 58___ Jesus Green Lido
Making a splash | 124

- 59___ Kettle's Yard
A way of life' | 126
- 60___ The King Street Run
Cambridge's pint-to-pint race | 128
- 61___ The Lawrence Room
Mummy dearest | 130
- 62___ The Leper Chapel
Are you going to Stourbridge Fair? | 132
- 63___ Lloyds Bank
A magnificent temple to money | 134
- 64___ The Market
Books, bikes, beetroot and bread | 136
- 65___ Michaelhouse Centre
Delicious things in medieval Cambridge | 138
- 66___ Midsummer Common
Fireworks, fairs and an armadillo | 140
- 67___ Milestones to Barkway
The tale of a mouse and a hare | 142
- 68___ The Mill
Of pints and punts | 144
- 69___ Mill Road
Cambridge at its alternative best | 146
- 70___ Mill Road Cemetery
Some rather distinguished departed | 148
- 71___ Museum of Archaeology and Anthropology
A museum bursting with stories | 150
- 72___ Museum of Cambridge
Eel grigs and Fuzzy-Felt at the White Horse Inn | 152
- 73___ Museum of Classical Archaeology
Casting about in the classical world | 154
- 74___ Museum of Technology
Green before green was ever invented | 156
- 75___ Museum of Zoology
Saving the whale (again) | 158
- 76___ Mystery Mermen
A tiny church with a big puzzle | 160
- 77___ New Hall Art Collection
A discreet celebration of women's art | 162
- 78___ Newmarket Road Underpass
An unexpected gallery of Cambridge history | 164

- 79_____ The Old Bicycle Shop
Gearing up to deliver imaginative vegetarian food | 166
- 80_____ The Orchard Tea Garden
There really is honey still for tea | 168
- 81_____ Our Lady and the English Martyrs
'The Catholic' | 170
- 82_____ Paradise
A little piece of heaven on earth | 172
- 83_____ Pembroke College Chapel
Where Wren first spread his wings | 174
- 84_____ The Pepys Library
'For the benefit of posterity' | 176
- 85_____ The Pint Shop
When Tom met Jerry | 178
- 86_____ The Pitt Club
Drinking and diving | 180
- 87_____ The Polar Museum
In the footsteps of heroes | 182
- 88_____ Polonia Club
A small slice of Poland in Cambridge | 184
- 89_____ The Press Museum
The very human side of the world's oldest press | 186
- 90_____ Queens' College Sundial
Casting a shadow in Old Court | 188
- 91_____ Real Tennis Club
More fun than Quidditch | 190
- 92_____ Reality Checkpoint
Where gown and town part company | 192
- 93_____ Relevant Record Café
It's not just nostalgia | 194
- 94_____ Riverboat Rosie
Messing about on the river | 196
- 95_____ School of Pythagoras
A small slice of Oxford in Cambridge | 198
- 96_____ Sedgwick Museum of Earth Sciences
A jaw-dropping tour of our history | 200
- 97_____ Shakespeare Festival
Helping to keep the Bard real | 202
- 98_____ Snowy Farr Statue
'I believe in giving not receiving' | 204

- 99_____ St Bene't's Church
A small church with a prodigious history | 206
- 100_____ St Botolph's Church
The Darwin family church | 208
- 101_____ St Clement's Church
The oldest church in 'Bridgeland' | 210
- 102_____ Stir
A real community hub | 212
- 103_____ Strawberry Fair
The fair that is always a festival | 214
- 104_____ Street Signs
Hidden in plain sight | 216
- 105_____ Thirsty
Drinking, but not as we know it | 218
- 106_____ Trinity College
Secrets and spies | 220
- 107_____ The Union
Arguing seriously since 1815 | 222
- 108_____ The University Library
It's not just about books | 224
- 109_____ Varsity Hotel Rooftop Bar
360-degree boutique chic | 226
- 110_____ Whipple Museum of the History of Science
Whipping up enthusiasm for science | 228
- 111_____ Xu Zhimo Memorial
The magnetic power of a willow and a white stone | 230