

Table of contents

List of contributors..... 7

Foreword 11

FERNANDO MARHUENDA-FLUIXÁ
Alternance and vocational knowledge: Reconsidering apprenticeships and education-business partnerships from an educational perspective..... 21

1. Dual systems in Europe: Reforms and modernization

SANDRA BOHLINGER
Contextualising policy transfer initiatives in the field of vocational education and training (VET) 51

FLORINDA SAULI, MATILDE WENGER & JEAN-LOUIS BERGER
What constitutes quality in the Swiss initial vocational education and training dual system: An apprentice perspective..... 79

STEFAN KESSLER & PHILIPP GONON
The disruptive potential of digitalization and the current Swiss
VET landscape..... 105

2. Apprenticeships in dual and non-dual systems: Adaptation and opportunities to develop

ENNI PAUL & CAMILLA GÅFVELS

Apprenticeship education and school-based vocational programmes in the Swedish upper secondary school: Different tracks towards the same goal? 135

DIETMAR FROMMBERGER, MATTHIAS PILZ, MICHAEL GESSLER

International cooperation in the field of vocational education and training: Concepts, approaches, and empirical findings from a German perspective 161

M'HAMED DIF

Apprenticeship in France: Institutional patterns, organisation, methods and performance..... 179

3. Dual VET and education-business cooperation in Spain

REINA FERRÁNDEZ-BERRUERO, LUCÍA SÁNCHEZ-TARAZAGA & STEPHAN HUMPL

The interest of companies in participating in higher education209

MARÍA JOSÉ CHISVERT-TARAZONA, JAVIER VILA-VÁZQUEZ, ALICIA ROS-GARRIDO, & DAVINIA PALOMARES-MONTERO

Does the dual VET bring curriculum improvements?
A normative analysis in the Spanish context..... 239

ANGEL DÍAZ-CHAO, MÓNICA MOSO-DIEZ, & JOAN TORRENT-SELLENS

VET, value generation and firm result: An empirical exploration from Spanish industrial firms..... 265