

Miroslav Bárta
Preface	VII
Massimiliano Nuzzolo – Jaromír Krejčí
Introduction	1
Ayman Ashmawy – Dietrich Raue
Heliopolis in the Old Kingdom	5
Marie Peterková Hlouchová
Significance of Shu for the king's afterlife according to the Pyramid Texts	33
Katarína Arias
Beer for the king, beer for the sun god	55
Massimiliano Nuzzolo – Jaromír Krejčí – Mohamed Osman – Kathryn E. Piquette
Royal annals of ancient Egypt. Recent investigations on the Palermo Stone and its associated fragments	71
Richard Bussmann
The ka -chapel of Pepy I in Elephantine	103
Antonio J. Morales
Ascension texts in transmission: reaching the skies from Unas to Pedamenopet ..	117
Adela Oppenheim
The solar cult in the pyramid complex of Senusret III at Dahshur: an overview	133
Martina Bardoňová – Mohamed Ismail Khaled
Vessels for the lion goddess. Contextualizing the New Kingdom royal name faience from Central Abusir	159
Rosanna Pirelli
Sahura's and Hatshepsut's Punt reliefs in comparison	181
Martin Pehal
New Kingdom royal succession strategies and their possible Old Kingdom antecedents	199
Nenad Marković
"Apis is Ptah, Apis is Ra, Apis is Horus, son of Isis": the solar aspect of the divine Apis bull and the royal ideology of the Late Period (664–332 BCE)	235