

Contents

PHILIPP EIGENMANN, PHILIPP GONON AND MARKUS WEIL Opening and Extending Vocational Education – An Introduction	9
--	---

A. Historical Perspectives on Extending Vocational Education

JOHN PARDY Australian Technical and Vocational Education and Training: A Path Well-Travelled	21
--	----

STEFAN WOLF Theoretical Frameworks and Historical Experiences of Industrialisation for an Exchange with Developing Countries for the Further Development of Qualification for Employment	43
---	----

LORENZO BONOLI The Origin of Vocational Guidance in Switzerland: Between Promotion of Aptitudes and Social Reproduction	75
---	----

OKSANA MELNYK Historical-Cultural Dimension of VET in Ukraine	99
--	----

B. Opening Vocational Education Structures

ANTJE BARABASCH, ANNA KELLER AND DOMINIC CALDART 'How I Have Grown Over These Years Seems to Be Extreme to Me'. Socialisation of the Next Generation in an Innovative Learning Culture	135
---	-----

MARTIN FISCHER Vocational Orientation at German Universities – Reality, Desire or Contradiction?	159
--	-----

PHILIPP EIGENMANN The Challenges of Combining Scientific and Vocational Education. The Case of a New Tertiary Dual-Study Degree in Switzerland	187
---	-----

K. PETER KUCHINKE AND ALEXANDRE ARDICHVILI Leadership Education for Undergraduate Students: Strengthening Career Readiness at U.S. Universities	211
---	-----

C. Opening and Extending of Formal Vocational Education

JEANNE GAMBLE Can 'Occupation' Disrupt the Logic of Qualification Frameworks?	237
---	-----

SAIKAT MAITRA AND SRABANI MAITRA Training to be Entrepreneurial: Examining Vocational Education Programmes for Young Women in Industrial Training Institutes (ITI) in Kolkata	265
--	-----

FERNANDO MARHUENDA FLUIXÁ

Apprenticeships for Adulthood: The Contribution of the Third
Sector to Non-Formal Vocational Education 291

GINA DI MAIO

Meeting Rising Skill Demands: Higher Vocational Training in Switzerland as an Example of Tertiary Vocational Training 319

PHILIPP GONON AND MARKUS WEIL

Continuing Higher Education Between Academic and Professional Skills 341

D. Epilogue

ANJA HEIKKINEN

Culture and VET – An Outdated Connection? 361

List of Authors 383

List of Figures 389

List of Tables 391