

Contents

|                                                                                   |        |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------|
| List of illustrations                                                             | ix     |
| PART I The Hogarth Effect on Prose                                            | I  |
| ROSAMARIA LORETELLI                                                           |        |
| 1 The Analysis of Beauty and the new eighteenth-century narrative paradigm | 3      |
| ROBERTA FERRARI                                                               |        |
| 2 The drama of real life. Charles Lamb and 'tragic' Hogarth                       | 25     |
| PAOLO BUGLIANI                                                                |        |
| 3 The comedy of artistic bathos. William Hazlitt's familiarity with Hogarth       | 41     |
| FRANCESCA ORESTANO                                                            |        |
| 4 Hogarth, Dickens, and the progress of vision                                    | 57     |
| PART II Proto-Modernist and Modernist Offshoots                               | 95 |
| MARCO MODENESI                                                                |        |
| 5 'A wholly popular name'. William Hogarth in French fin-de-siècle literature     | 97     |
| MAX SAUNDERS                                                                  |        |
| 6 Hogarth, Ford Madox Brown and Ford Madox Ford                                   | 109    |

MAURIZIO ASCARI

- 7 The present is the only time. Mansfield's 'Marriage à la Mode' and the inability to change 131

LIA GUERRA

- 8 Joyce's Giacomo Joyce and Hogarth's aesthetics 143

CHRISTINE REYNIER

- 9 Rebecca West's and David Low's intermedial dialogue with William Hogarth in The Modern 'Rake's Progress' (1934) 155

PART III Dialogues with Contemporary Novelists 181

ROBERTA CIMAROSTI

- 10 Creole Britain in Hogarth and David Dabydeen's Hogarthian books 183

SERENA GRAZZINI

- 11 The line of grace in Peter Handke's Essay on the Successful Day. With an excursus on Hogarth's reception in German-speaking areas 207

MARGARET ROSE

- 12 William Hogarth and Thomas Coram's Foundling Hospital. The institution's afterlife in fiction and onstage 227

ALESSANDRA CROTTI

- 13 A Rake's Progress of Stamford Hill? Howard Jacobson meets
William Hogarth 239

GEORGES LETISSIER

- 14 William Hogarth's serpentine line in Alan Hollinghurst's
'variety composed' literary aesthetics 257

Works cited 277

Notes on contributors 315

Index of names (Book 2) 325