

Contents

Abbreviations — VII

Chapter 1: Introduction — 1

- 1.1 Soundings in a Working Definition of Emotion for a New Testament Hermeneutic — 5
 - 1.1.1 “Positive Emotions” and other Morally Questionable Categories — 7
 - 1.1.2 Summary — 16
 - 1.1.3 The Narrative Nature of Hellenistic Emotion (and the Trouble with Pathē Lists) — 17
- 1.2 Conclusion — 21
- 1.3 Thesis — 23

Chapter 2: A Methodological Proposal for Discussing Emotion in a First-Century CE Milieu — 25

- 2.1 The Legacy of Aristotelian Emotion as Process-Event — 26
- 2.2 The Dangerous Pathē: Emotion in Hellenistic Thought/Early Roman Imperial Period — 32
 - 2.2.1 Pre-emotional Growth in Hellenistic Thought — 33
 - 2.2.2 A Working Definition of “Emotion” — 45
- 2.3 Beyond the Moral Treatises: “Rising Emotion” in Other Prominent Hellenistic Literature — 52
 - 2.3.1 Plutarch’s Biographies — 52
 - 2.3.2 The Progymnasmata — 54
 - 2.3.3 Pre-emotional Restraint in Chariton and Apuleius — 57
- 2.4 Emotional Restraint through Emulation/Imitation — 83
- 2.5 Conclusion — 94

Chapter 3: Emotional Temptation, Disbelief, and Anti-emotional Repentance in Mark: The “Good News” of the Kingdom as Divine-Rational Empowerment — 98

- 3.1 Emotional Growth among Jesus’s Disciples — 101
 - 3.1.1 Pre-emotional Anxiety and Disbelief at Sea (Mark 4:35–41) — 101
 - 3.1.2 Disbelief in Emotion Theory — 105
 - 3.1.3 Emotional Disbelief and Anxiety among Minor Characters in Mark — 109

- 3.1.4 The Disciples' Unresolved "Emotion" (Mark 4:35 – 41) — 137
- 3.2 Phase-Three Emotion at Bethany (Mark 14:1 – 11) — 143
- 3.2.1 Anointing and Anti-Emotional Resistance — 144
- 3.2.2 Judas's Phase-Three Emotional Sin — 155
- 3.3 Conclusion — 159

Chapter 4: Mark's "(Un)Emotional" Jesus: "He Saved Others; Himself He Cannot Save[?]" (Mark 15:31) — 162

- 4.1 "Emotion" on the Sabbath: Who Is Angrier, Jesus or His Opponents? (Mark 3:1 – 6) — 163
- 4.1.1 Jesus's "Anger" — 163
- 4.1.2 Disbelieving and Angry Religious Leaders — 171
- 4.1.3 Summary — 178
- 4.1.4 Additional Examples of Jesus's Anger Restraint (Mark 1:40 – 45; 11:11 – 18) — 180
- 4.1.5 Summary — 187
- 4.2 Emotional Temptation from Gethsemane to Golgotha — 187
- 4.2.1 Jesus's Advanced Pre-emotion in Gethsemane — 189
- 4.2.2 Passing the Emotional Test in Gethsemane — 196
- 4.3 Conclusion — 201

Chapter 5: Conclusions and Implications — 205

- 5.1 Implications for the More Authentic (or "Original") Ending of Mark (16:8) — 209
- 5.2 Implications for the Longer (Secondary) Ending of Mark (16:9 – 20) — 210
- 5.3 Implications for a Markan-Priority Hermeneutic — 213

Bibliography — 216

Subject Index — 227

Ancient Sources Index — 243

Modern Authors Index — 269