

9	FOREWORD
11	GREETINGS FROM LONDON Ernst Vegelin van Claerbergen
13	THE ARTISTIC GAZE: EMIL BÜHRLE'S IMPRESSIONISM Thomas W. Gaehtgens
27	Lukas Gloor EMIL BÜHRLE: A TWENTIETH-CENTURY MODERN ART COLLECTION
29	Acknowledgements
33	INTRODUCTION
35	Emil Bührle, Industrialist and Art Collector
39	The Holdings of the Emil Bührle Collection
42	A Historical Take on Modern Art Collections
49	The Personality of the Collector and His Collection
53	The Three Circles of the Emil Bührle Collection
59	BEFORE 1914: THE GERMAN ROOTS OF THE EMIL BÜHRLE COLLECTION
61	Art Historians and Connoisseurs: The Old Masters
62	Early Modernism: The French Impressionists
67	Radically Modern: The Dawn of the Avant-Garde
71	1936–1950: THE EMIL BÜHRLE COLLECTION IN THE SWISS CONTEXT
73	Emil Bührle from the First World War to a New Life in Switzerland
75	Private Art Collections in Switzerland before the Second World War
82	First Purchases on the Swiss Art Market
88	Old Masters, “Degenerate Art” and Impressionists
95	Looted Art: Restitution, Repurchase and Recovery
100	After the War: Two “Self-Portraits” and Two Masterpieces

117	1951–1956: THE EMIL BÜHRLE COLLECTION IN ITS TRANSATLANTIC CONTEXT
118	Emil Bührle in the Cold War, and a Fresh Start in the United States
125	The Collection of Medieval Sculpture
127	Art Dealers in Zurich, Paris, London and New York
136	The Core Sections of the Emil Bührle Collection
138	Vermeer and the Old Masters
148	Manet and the French Nineteenth Century
156	Avant-Garde, Ecole de Paris and Pablo Picasso
171	The Emil Bührle Collection between Continents
189	EMIL BÜHRLE AND THE KUNSTHAUS ZÜRICH
191	The Second Kunsthause Extension
195	Contemporary Swiss Art
197	Water Lilies by Claude Monet for Zurich
207	THE FOUNDATION E.G. BÜHRLE COLLECTION
209	The Collection from 1957 to 1959 and the Foundation's Birth in 1960
216	The Foundation E.G. Bührle Collection on the Edge of Town and on a World Tour
221	The Emil Bührle Collection in the Museum World since 1990
229	The Emil Bührle Collection and the Looted Art Debate since 1990
234	The Emil Bührle Collection on Its Way to the Kunsthause Zürich
243	CONCLUSIONS
251	THE EMIL BÜHRLE COLLECTION
253	The Holdings of the Emil Bührle Collection: Illustrated List of All 633 Purchases
298	Works Restituted and Repurchased in the Emil Bührle Collection 1942–1951
300	Sales and Purchases by the Foundation E.G. Bührle Collection 1959–2016
302	“The Origin and Growth of My Collection”: Lecture by Emil Bührle on 14 June 1954
306	Abbreviations for Archival Sources and a Bibliography for the Emil Bührle Collection
308	Index of Names

70 MASTERPIECES OF THE EMIL BÜHRLE COLLECTION

315 MIDDLE AGES AND BAROQUE

316 Medieval Sculpture

Stephan Gasser and Alain Fretz

324 From the Margins

Axel Christoph Gampp

333 OLD AND MODERN MASTERS

334 The Artistry in Art: Masters Old and New

Barbara Schaefer

349 THE FRENCH NINETEENTH CENTURY

350 Transitions: Portraits and Still Lifes

Monika Brunner

360 Parallel Phenomena: French Painting around 1850

Astrid Näff

371 IMPRESSIONISM

372 "A Perfect Moment of Impressionism"

Matthias Krüger

384 A Focus on People

Paul Müller

397 POST-IMPRESSIONISM

398 Paul Cézanne: In Possession of Sightlines

Yuval Etgar

410 Bührle and His Van Goghs

Chris Stolwijk

424 The Discovery of New Artistic Techniques

Anna Szech

433 PARIS 1900

434 Belle Epoque Paris

Rudolf Koella

449 AVANT-GARDE

450 Eight Paintings in the Avant-Garde Context

Denise Frey

469

Bibliography of the Essays
Copyright/Image Credits
Colophon

470

471