

Contents

Acknowledgments	IX
Preface	XI
Abbreviations	XVII
Introduction	XXIX
1. The Identity of Agrippa: Metamorphosis and Revolution	XXIX
2. An Ideologue of Humanism: between Religion and Magic	XLI
 Chapter 1 Agrippa in Italy: a Hermetic Thinker of the Renaissance ...	1
1. Historical-biographical Profile	1
2. A Hermetic Reform of Knowledge: Elements of Agrippa's Humanism	6
 Chapter 2 Magic in the Debate Among the Humanists	17
1. The Dignity of the Magician: Agrippa as Reader of Ficino and Pico	17
2. The Religion of the Magician: Trithemius, Reuchlin, Lazzarelli	27
 Chapter 3 Quasi imaginis imago : the Origins of a Discourse on Human Nature	41
1. The Urgency of Meditating on the Human Being	41
2. A Reflection on the Soul	48
 Chapter 4 The Dialogus de homine . Content, Structure, Interpretation	59
1. "... mentem atque sermonem, sue divinitatis imaginem"	59
2. "... ab ornatu et pulchritudine"	67
3. "... homo autem microcosmus"	72
4. "... maioris mundi vinculum est et nodus"	79
5. "... attamen non angelus, sed homo"	86
6. "... per regenerationis mysterium"	101
7. "... artus et figuras in nobis latentes"	107
8. "... corpus amplectens"	121
9. "... hec est iusta dissolutio"	130

Chapter 5 From Putting an Idea into Writing to its Reconstruction 145

1. The Ending of the Dialogue: Interruption and Continuation 145

2. From the Man to the Magician: the Completion of the Work 150

Chapter 6 Dialogue on Humankind 171

1. Editorial Criteria 171

2. Dialogus de homine. Latin text 184

Bibliography 203

Index Nominum Notabilium 217