0. Introduction	13
0.1. Underlying Logic and Terminology	15
0.2. Definitions	19
0.3. Principles of Deduction	22
0.4. Interpretation	23
1. The Task of Theodicy	25
1.1. God Is Omnipotent and All-Good	25
1.2. There Is Evil	26
1.3. Possible Conflict	26
1.4. The Question of Leibniz	27
2. Logical Fallacies	31
2.1. God's Will Is Always Fulfilled	31
2.1.1. Does God Will that Evil Occurs?	31
2.1.2. Confusion Concerning Negation	31
2.1.3. Wrong Application of Modus Tollens	32
2.1.4. Wrong Neglect of Should	33
2.2. Tertium Non Datur	33
2.2.1. Argument with Ambiguity	33
2.2.2. Confusion Concerning Tertium Non Datur	33
2.2.3. Ambiguity of Contradiction	34
2.2.4. The Thesis of the All-Willing God	35
2.2.5. AWG Does not Follow from Omnipotence	37
2.3. No Limits for an Omnipotent Being?	38
2.3.1. Contradictory Definition	38
2.3.2. Translation into Propositional Logic	38
2.3.3. Analogous Result	39
2.3.4. Contradictory Definiens of Omnipotence	40
2.4. Evil as Lack or Privation Is Unreal	40
2.4.1. Is Evil Unreal?	41
2.4.2. Evil Is Real	41
2.4.3. Ambiguous usage of Privation	41
2.5. Hume's Argument from Evil	42
2.5.1. Fallacy and False Premise	42

2.5.2.	The Invalidity of Hume's Argument	43
2.5.3.	The Falsity of Hume's Second Premise	45
3.	False Assumptions	47
3.1.	Wrong Definitions of First Cause and First Being	47
3.1.1.	Wrong Definition of God	49
3.2.	All-Causing God?	52
3.2.1.	Two Theses of an All-Causing God	53
3.2.2.	ACG Does not Follow from AWG	54
3.3.	Religious Fatalism	54
3.3.1.	The Thesis RFT	55
3.3.2.	The Alleged Support of RFT	56
3.4.	Does God Possibly Will Evil?	58
3.4.1.	Dilemma	59
3.4.2.	Solution to the Dilemma	60
3.5.	Epicur's Argument	61
3.6.	Does God Eliminate Every Evil?	64
3.6.1.	Interpretation (a)	65
3.6.2.	Interpretation (b)	65
4.	Axiomatic System of Theodicy: Omniscience, Omnipotence, Benevolence	69
4.1.	The First Three Axioms of the System	69
4.2.	Conflict	69
4.3.	Omniscience	71
4.3.1.	Logically Omniscient and Logically Infallible	75
4.3.2.	Knowledge of the Universe	76
4.3.3.	Omniscience and Evil	78
4.3.4.	Biblical and Church Documents Concerning Omniscience	78
4.4.	Omnipotence	80
4.4.1.	God's Causation	84
4.4.2.	The Power of God	86
4.4.3.	God as a Sufficient and Necessary Cause	88
4.4.4.	Omnipotence and Evil	93
4.4.5.	Biblical and Church Documents Concerning Omnipotence	94

4.5.	Benevolence. God Is All-Good	95
4.5.1.	Axiom of Benevolence	95
4.5.2.	God's Benevolence and Will	96
4.5.3.	God's Benevolence and Love	98
4.5.4.	God Is Just and Merciful and Full of Love to Humans	100
4.5.5.	Benevolence and Evil	100
4.5.6.	Biblical and Church Documents Concerning Benevolence	101
4.5.7.	Biblical and Church Documents Concerning Justice, Mercy and Love	102
5.	An Axiomatic System of Theodicy: Evil	107
5.1.	Different Kinds of Evil	107
5.1.1.	Definition of Metaphysical Evil	107
5.1.2.	Conditional Will	109
5.1.3.	Definition of Natural Evil	111
5.1.4.	Definition of Necessary Evil	114
5.1.5.	Definition of Legitimate Evil	115
5.1.6.	Definition of Moral Evil	117
5.1.7.	Definition of Soul-Making Evil	119
5.1.8.	Definition of God's Punishment	120
5.1.9.	Definition of Undeserved Evil	122
5.1.10.	The Different Types of Evils Are Real Facts	124
5.2.	Evil Is Accompanied by Good	125
5.2.1.	No Evil Without some Good	125
5.2.2.	Every Evil Is Accompanied by some Good	127
5.3.	God's Will and Moral Evil	129
6.	Consistency Proof	133
6.1.	The Model OBE	133
6.2.	The Consistency of the Axioms	135
6.2.1.	Axioms A1–A6	135
6.2.2.	Definitions D9–D11	138
6.2.3.	Axioms A7–A15	139
6.2.4.	Axioms 16–18	145
6.2.5.	Consistency of the Axiomatic System	151

6.3. The Consistency of Important Theorems	151
