

Content

Preface to a Discussion (Massimo La Torre)	1
I. The Fact of Migration: Globalization and Freedom of Movement
Catherine Wihtol de Wenden , Citizenship and Migration in a Globalized World	7
Luís Pereira Coutinho , The Equality Gap	15
II. A Right to Migration? Why Borders?
Christine Chwaszczca , Migration and the Unity of Society: A Liberal Perspective	27
Dietmar von der Pfordten , Citizenship and Humanism	45
Stephan Kirste , A European Common Area for Asylum – An Argument from Legal Philosophy	61
III. After Migration: Citizenship
Volker H. Schmidt and Thomas Gutmann , National Citizenship and Categorical Inequality. Philosophical and Sociological Perspectives	89
Agustín José Menéndez and Espen D. H. Olsen , The Odd Citizenship out: European Citizenship in the Mirror of the Internal and External Other	99
Massimo La Torre , Europe Lost – Voices on Citizenship and Exile	115