

Contents

1.	Artistic Representations of Violence from a Gender Perspective: The Affective Turn	1
2.	The Identity Question: A Journey Back and Forth	21
3.	Gender and Political Violence: The First Literary Representations: Nerea eta biok (Nerea and I) and Koaderno Gorria (The Red Notebook)	53
4.	Ander eta Yul (Ander and Yul) and Yoyes : Death and Affective Disruptions in a Fractured Community	77
5.	El Ángulo ciego (The Blind Spot) and El Comensal (The Dinner Guest): Affective Ramifications in Literary Representations of Political Violence	99
6.	Mejor la ausencia (Better the Absence): Violence and Affective Ruptures	125

7.	Back to the Past: Explorations of Domestic, Social, and Political Conflicts: Los turistas desganados (Listless Tourists), La línea del frente (The Front Line), and Los niños de Lemóniz (The Children of Lemóniz)	147
8.	Some Final Thoughts	185