

Contents

Preface IX

Daniel Bellingradt and Anna Reynolds

List of Illustrations X

Notes on Contributors XVII

- 1 The Paper Trade in Early Modern Europe: An Introduction 1
Daniel Bellingradt

PART I

Hotspots and Trade Routes

- 2 Selling Paper in Early Modern Venice: Paper-retailers and the “Libri da carta bianca” 31
Anna Gialdini
- 3 ‘Unter dem Zeichen des Adlers’: Frankfurt as Hub of the Central European Paper Trade in the 16th Century 55
Megan K. Williams
- 4 The Paper Supply of a Printing House as a Mirror of the Paper Trade in the Early Modern Low Countries: The Case of Dirk Martens’ Workshop 90
Renaud Adam
- 5 Juan Tomás Favario and the Paper Trade in Early Modern Spain or the Supply of Paper as a New Modality of Publishing 106
Benito Rial Costas
- 6 Paper Flows through the Danish Sound, 1634–1857 125
Jan Willem Veluwenkamp
- 7 Networks of Paper in Late Medieval England 148
Orietta Da Rold

PART 2Usual Dealings

- 8 Types and Sources of Paper in Late Medieval Finland: A Case Study of the Paper in Raseborg Castle Scriptorium, ca. 1390–1435 169
 Tapio Salminen

- 9 Buying Paper for the Consulate: Insights into the Paper Trade of Lyon, 1450–1525 197
 Jean-Benoît Krumenacker

- 10 The Usage and Acquisition of Paper in the Jagiellonian Courts, 1490–1507 218
 Krisztina Rábai

- 11 The Paper Purchases of the Dutch East India Company's Amsterdam Chamber in the Early Eighteenth Century 244
 Frank Birkenholz

- 12 Stationers, Papetiers and the Supply Networks of a Swiss Publisher: The Société Typographique de Neuchâtel and the Paper Trade 1769–1789 266
 Simon Burrows, Michael Falk, Rachel Hendery, and Katherine McDonough

- 13 The Paper Trails of Guðbrandur Þorláksson: A Case Study of the Official and Private Paths Used for Purchasing Paper by the Sixteenth-Century Bishop of Hólar, Iceland 302
 Silvia Hufnagel

PART 3Recycling Economies

- 14 Material Sensibilities: Writing Paper and Chemistry in the Netherlands and Beyond, ca. 1800 327
 Andreas Weber

- 15 “Worthy to Be Reserved”: Bookbindings and the Waste Paper Trade in Early Modern England and Scotland 342
 Anna Reynolds

PART 4
Epilogue

16 Afterword 371
 Helen Smith

 Index of Names and Subjects 381