

Contents

MICHAEL SHEVLIN

Foreword ix

MIRIAM TWOMEY AND CLARE CARROLL

Introduction: Why voice and why now? i

PART I Legislation, policy and theories

KAY M. TISDALL

1 Applying human rights to children's participation in research 17

MARY WICKENDEN

2 'I have a lot to say!': A human rights perspective on recognizing the voices of disabled children globally 39

ELENA JENKIN, ERIN WILSON, ROBERT CAMPAIN

AND MATTHEW CLARKE

3 Beyond childhood, disability and postcolonial theory: young children with disability in developing countries can tell their own story 57

KAREN WATSON

4 Researching among children: Exploring discourses and power in the 'inclusive' early childhood classroom 81

PART II Innovative explorations of different forms of voice

MELANIE NIND

- 5 Multimodal listening and attending to children with complex disabilities in educational settings 105

BEN SIMMONS

- 6 The phenomenology of intersubjectivity and research with profoundly disabled children: Developing an experiential framework for analysing lived social experiences 125

MIRIAM TWOMEY

- 7 Embodying voice: Children speak through their bodies 145

MARTINE M. SMITH

- 8 Accessing the voices of children who use augmentative and alternative communication: Merits and perils of co-construction 171

CLARE CARROLL

- 9 Let me tell you about my rabbit! Listening to the needs and preferences of the child in early intervention 191

PART III Disciplinary illustrations and explorations around voice

HELEN LYNCH

- 10 Beyond voice: An occupational science perspective on researching through doing 243

MARIA PRELLWITZ AND HELEN LYNCH

- 11 Universal Design for social inclusion: Playgrounds for all 267

RENA LYONS

- 12 Seen and heard: The voice of children with speech and developmental language disorders 297

LINE CAES AND SIOBHÁN O'HIGGINS

- 13 Listen to us! The voices of young children with pain 315

CAROLYN BLACKBURN

- 14 Young children's use of private speech in early childhood settings: Moving from a deficit approach to a rights and agency approach 341

NÓIRÍN HAYES

- 15 We are all in this together: Inclusive early childhood education 365

CLARE CARROLL AND MIRIAM TWOMEY

- 16 Participation, engagement and voice: Where do we go from here? 389

Glossary 403

Acronyms 407

Notes on contributors 409

Index 415