

Contents

---

Notes on Contributors	ix
Introduction: Whose Book is it Anyway? A View from Elsewhere on Publishing, Copyright and Creativity Janis Jefferies and Sarah Kember	1
PART I:	19
Opening out the Copyright Debate: Open Access, Ethics and Creativity
1. A Statement by The Readers Project Concerning Contemporary Literary Practice, Digital Mediation, Intellectual Property, and Associated Moral Rights John Cayley and Daniel C. Howe	21
2. London-Havana Diary: Art Publishing, Sustainability, Free Speech and Free Papers Louise O'Hare	33
3. The Ethics of Emergent Creativity: Can We Move Beyond Writing as Human Enterprise, Commodity and Innovation? Janneke Adema	65
4. Are Publishers Worth It? Filtering, Amplification and the Value of Publishing Michael Bhaskar	91

5. Who Takes Legal Responsibility for Published Work? Why Both an Understanding and Lived Experience of Copyright Are Becoming Increasingly Important to Writers Alison Baverstock	105
6. Telling Stories or Selling Stories: Writing for Pleasure, Writing for Art or Writing to Get Paid? Sophie Rochester	129
7. Copyright in the Everyday Practice of Writers Smita Kheria	141
8. Comics, Copyright and Academic Publishing: The Deluxe Edition Ronan Deazley and Jason Mathis	181
PART II: Views from Elsewhere	227
9. Diversity or die: How the Face of Book Publishing Needs to Change if it is to Have a Future Danuta Kean	229
10. Writing on the Cusp of Becoming Something Else J. R. Carpenter	243
11. Confronting Authorship, Constructing Practices (How Copyright is Destroying Collective Practice) Eva Weinmayr	267
12. Ethical Scholarly Publishing Practices, Copyright and Open Access: A View from Ethnomusicology and Anthropology Muriel Swijghuisen Reigersberg	309

13. Show me the Copy! How Digital Media (Re)Assert Relational Creativity, Complicating Existing Intellectual Property and Publishing Paradigms Joseph F. Turcotte	347
14. Redefining Reader and Writer, Remixing Copyright: Experimental Publishing at if:book Australia Simon Groth	379
APPENDIX: CREATE Position Papers	403
1. Publishing Industry Janis Jefferies	405
2. Is the Current Copyright Framework fit for Purpose in Relation to Writing, Reading and Publishing in the Digital Age? Laurence Kaye	415
3. Is the Current Copyright Framework fit for Purpose in Relation to Writing, Reading, and Publishing in the Digital Age? Richard Mollet	417
4. History of Copyright Changes 1710–2013 Rachel Calder	423
5. Is the Current Copyright Framework fit for Purpose in Relation to Writing, Reading, and Publishing in the Digital Age? Max Whitby	427
List of Illustrations	429
Index	431