

Contents

List of Contributors	vii
Preface GUADALUPE LÓPEZ-BONILLA AND KAREN ENGLANDER	xi
1 Introduction COLIN LANKSHEAR	1
 SECTION I
Educational Practices and Identities
2 Going the Distance: The Challenges of Traversing Cultural and Geographical Space between Home and School HUGH MEHAN, NADIA KHALIL AND J. CÉSAR MORALES	23
3 Developing Disciplinary Discourses and Identities: What's Knowledge Got to Do with It? ELIZABETH BIRR MOJE	49
4 “Teamwork”: Conflicting Cultural Models of Gender, Class, School, and Family among High School Students GUADALUPE LÓPEZ-BONILLA	75
 SECTION II
Literacy, Youth Cultures and Virtual Spaces
5 Reading, Language Development, Video Games, and Learning in the Twenty-first Century JAMES PAUL GEE	101

6 Between Physical and Virtual Spaces: The Literacy Practices of High School Students CARMEN PÉREZ-FRAGOSO	129
SECTION III
Educational Policies and Professional Identities
7 Identities in Shifting Educational Policy Contexts: The Consequences of Moving from Two Languages, One Community to English Only JUDITH GREEN AND ANA INÉS HERAS	155
8 Power, Identity and Discourse in the Institutionalization of Basic Education in Mexico ALMA CARRASCO AND ROLLIN KENT	195
9 The Globalized World of English Scientific Publishing: An Analytical Proposal That Situates a Multilingual Scholar KAREN ENGLANDER	209
10 Bicultural or Intercultural? The Official Discourse and Its Appropriation by Indigenous Teachers in Mexico GUADALUPE TINAJERO-VILLAVICENCIO	229
Author Index	257
Subject Index	263