

Contents

- 1 The Rape of Nanking in Light of the Japanese Army's Overall Strategic Decisions. Observations Based in Japanese Considerations — 1
- 2 Changes in the Order of Life for Nanjing Residents Before and After the Massacre — 15
  - 2.1 The End of the Normal Order of Life and the Dawn of the Order of Life During the Defense — 16
  - 2.2 Approach, Arrival, and Continuation of the Power Vacuum Period — 39
  - 2.3 Deadlock and Construction of a “Normalized” Colonial Order in the Transitional Period — 76
  - 2.4 Transmission of Information Inside and Outside the City — 90
  - 2.5 Public Security Response — 103
  - 2.6 Real Estate Issues — 110
  - 2.7 The Closing and Opening of Commodity Exchange Markets — 118
  - 2.8 Damages to Water and Electricity Facilities and Their Restoration — 127
  - 2.9 Transportation Obstructions Inside and Outside the City and Their Clearance — 134
  - 2.10 Medical Aid — 140
- 3 Westerners in Nanjing During the Massacre — 151
  - 3.1 Westerners in Nanjing before the Fall — 151
  - 3.2 Westerners and International Rescue Organizations — 162
  - 3.3 Westerners in the Face of the Rape of Nanking — 190
  - 3.4 Relations Between Westerners, Japanese, and Chinese — 237
  - 3.5 Western Diplomats in Nanjing — 259
  - 3.6 Westerners in the Wake of Massacre — 270
- 4 The “German Perspective” on the Rape of Nanking Based in German Diplomatic Documents — 286
  - 4.1 The Germans behind the “German Perspective” — 287
  - 4.2 The Core of the “German Perspective”: The Truth behind the Rape of Nanking — 293
  - 4.3 Interaction between the “German Perspective” and British and American Perspectives — 300
  - 4.4 The “German Perspective” and German Interests — 307

- 5 The “American Perspective” on the Rape of Nanking — 316
  - 5.1 The People behind the “American Perspective” and Their Reasons for Staying in Nanjing — 316
  - 5.2 Documents of the American Perspective and Their Dissemination — 320
  - 5.3 The Core of the American Perspective: The Truth of the Rape of Nanking — 326
  - 5.4 The American Perspective and American Interests — 332

- 6 The Rape of Nanking in Japanese Historical Sources — 342
  - 6.1 Japanese Military Archives — 342
  - 6.2 Diaries and Correspondence of Japanese Officers and Soldiers — 365
  - 6.3 Memoirs of Former Japanese Soldiers and Military Correspondents — 380

- 7 Food Issues During the Rape of Nanking. Focusing on the Safety Zone — 409
  - 7.1 Food Supply Conditions and Food Policies in Nanjing before the Fall — 409
  - 7.2 Food Negotiations between the International Committee and the Japanese — 420
  - 7.3 Food and Living Conditions of Nanjing Residents during the Rape of Nanking — 441

- 8 Property Losses of Nanjing Residents during the Rape of Nanking. An Initial Analysis Based on Extant Materials in China — 455
  - 8.1 Surveys and Statistics Made during the War — 456
  - 8.2 Surveys and Statistics from after the War — 464
  - 8.3 Calculating Property Losses of Nanjing Residents during the Rape of Nanking — 471
  - 8.4 Epilogue: Impact of Nanjing Residents’ Property Losses — 481

- 9 Initial Study of PTSD Among Rape of Nanking Victims — 486
  - 9.1 Introduction of the PTSD Concept — 486
  - 9.2 PTSD Symptoms Among Rape of Nanking Victims — 489
  - 9.3 The Case of Minnie Vautrin — 495

- 10 The Nanjing Trials — 501
  - 10.1 Establishment of the Nanjing Military Tribunal — 501

- 10.2 Organization and Structure of the Military Tribunal — 511
- 10.3 Building Cases for the Rape of Nanking — 520
- 10.4 Public Participation in the Trials — 542
- 10.5 Reflections on the Post-War Trials of Rape of Nanking
Criminals — 554

- 11 The Rape of Nanking Cases in the International Military Tribunal for the Far East Trial Arguments and Their “Legacy”. Based in a Study of Cross-examinations — 559
  - 11.1 Cross-examination and Calling into Question Witnesses and Sworn Statements of the Prosecution — 561
  - 11.2 Witnesses and Sworn Affidavits of the Defense, and Cross-examination by the Prosecution — 570
  - 11.3 Testimony and Cross-Examination of Matsui Iwane — 583
  - 11.4 The Inheritance of the IMTFE Defense’s Legacy by the Japanese
Right Wing — 591

- References — 605

- Postscript — 642

- Postscript to the Revised Edition — 644