

What is Gouache?
The basics for pros
and amateurs

10–17

The other watercolour.
Balancing act of composition: Pigments, gum arabic & co

18–21

Siblings and cousins.
Gouache vs. other paints:
Watercolour, acrylic,
tempera, oil and pastel
Comparison chart
Gouache/Acrylic/
Tempera/Oil/Pastel/
Watercolour

22–29

Here, there and everywhere.
Gouache in art history
The gouache essentials
at a glance

The Nitty-Gritty.
Materials

32–35

Top or flop.
What makes good paints good?

36–37

Label, talk to me!
Learning to interpret information

38–41

A worthwhile purchase.
Overview of the chief gouache brands

42–43

Invention from China.
Choosing paper

44–49

The Royal No. 7 and consorts.
Comparing various brushes

50–53

Not without my sponge!
Other utensils

54–59

Painting helps.
Other painting tools and what they're good for

The First Step is Always the ... Easiest.
First steps

62–63

It's all about the tension.
Stretching watercolour papers

64–75

The power of triads.
An excursion in colour theory

76–79

The home studio.
Setting up your workplace
Your first set of gouache paints

80–81

Minor intermezzo.
Analogue vs. digital

82–83

What does this yellow sound like?
Sketching colour sounds

84–87

A little planning goes a long way.
Thinking about work
steps in advance

Nothing is Impossible.
Gouache techniques

90–93
Almost like watercolour, but not quite.
Glazing and washes

94–97
Pulling moods from the depths.
Opaque or transparent painting, from dark to light

98–101
Drawing clear borders.
Stencilling technique
Guide to stencilling

102–103
Dry spell.
The beauty of dry brushing

104–107
Sticking to the lines.
Drawing with gouache

108–111
Two steps forward, one step back.
Reworking technique

112–113
Spills and dribbles.
Spray technique

114–119
Gum arabic meets gum elastic.
Using masking fluid
Layer for layer:
Masking with gum arabic

120–123
Masked ball.
Masking with tape
Layer for layer:
Masking with tape

124–125
What can be combined with gouache?
Watercolours, coloured pencils, pastels, etc

126–127
Controlled coincidences.
Monotype

Portrait of a Banana Tree.
Apply and develop

130–135
Let's get ready!
Making sketches

136–143
The best of the beast.
Animals and pictures of animals
Layer for layer:
Animals

144–149
The greens.
Plants and flowers
Layer for layer:
Flowers

150–157
The eyes have it.
Pictures of people
Layer for layer:
The face

158–163
Bundle up!
Clothing and textiles

164–171
Nature morte, the world of things.
Objects of glass, stone, metal and wood
Layer for layer:
Glass.

172–175
A question of perspective.
Landscapes with gouache

176–181
The ABCs.
Lettering and calligraphy

182–184
And now...
Epilogue & Thanks.
Imprint.

