Teacher learning from a socio-constructivist perspective	43
A sociocultural turn in probing teacher learning	43
A socio-constructivist perspective in probing teacher learning	44
Summary	45
Chapter 4: Methodological Issues	51
Research questions	51
Research design: a multiple-case approach	52
Research context	53
The IVTP program in SNU	53
The two underserved schools: Phoenix and Sunflower	54
Research participants	55
Selection procedures	55
The two participants: Aixin and Xinnian	57
Data collection	58
Semi-structured interviews	60
Observations	61
Stimulated-recall interviews	61
Artifacts	62
Data analysis	63
My role as an investigator	65
Enhancing trustworthiness and ethical issues	66
Summary	67
Chapter 5: Aixin's Learning at Phoenix Primary School	71
Aixin's practical knowledge on entry into IVTP	71
Knowledge of self	71
Knowledge of context	72
Subject matter knowledge	73
Knowledge of curriculum	73
Knowledge of instruction	74
Knowledge of English teachers and teaching profession	76
Aixin's practical knowledge development during IVTP	78
Deepening the understanding about herself as an English teacher	80
Knowing more about the underserved context
in and around Phoenix	81
Expanding in the knowledge of curriculum	86
Growth in subject matter knowledge	88
