

| | |
|--|----|
| Preface | 08 |
| Volkswagen after the shock 2015: "We are relentlessly clarifying the facts" | 10 |
| Together4Integrity for twelve brands, 850 companies and 660,000 employees Tobias Heine | 14 |
| Of fishermen, melons and big plans: Integrity and compliance as part of the Volkswagen strategy Torben Oeder | 24 |
| Responsible environment policy for today and tomorrow Christiane Eckert and Tobias Bahr | 34 |
| Product Compliance – our responsibility Jens P. Barth | 44 |
| Managing risks means managing success Hagen Repke | 48 |

| | |
|--|-----|
| Effective levers for a sustainable integrity culture | |
| Tobias Heine | 72 |
| Measuring instead of assuming: the Integrity Index® | |
| Katja Nagel | 92 |
| | |
| "Speak-up" – Together we are strong | |
| Kurt Michels | 106 |
| | |
| Consistent action in the event of misconduct | |
| Kurt Michels | 138 |
| Why we need teamwork for a successful whistleblower system | |
| Miriam Müthel | 150 |
| | |
| Compliance Monitorship or how to regain lost trust | |
| Thomas Meiers | 164 |
| | |
| On the way to becoming the "Champion of Transformation" | |
| Georg Kell | 174 |
| | |
| The Volkswagen Drive: A better company | |
| Hiltrud D. Werner | 190 |
| | |
| Acknowledgments and Commitments..... | 200 |
| Footnotes and photo credits | 202 |