

Contents

Series Editors' Preface	9
Ralph Kauz / Morris Rossabi
Introduction	11
The Basics of Tribute
Li Wen 李文
The Origin of the Character gòng 貢	19
The System
Liu Yingsheng 劉迎勝
The Tribute System and the Dependent States of Mongol-Yuan China	45
He Xinhua 何新華
Political or Economic? A Systematical Investigation of the Forms of Goods Exchange under the Qing Tributary System ;	61
Chia Ning
The Tribute System in the Qing Dynasty: From Mechanism of Empire-Building to Origins of the Dynastic Fall	79
Bakhyt Ezhenkhan-uli
Notes on the Early Discourse of the Qing Court about the 'Kazakh Tribute'	99
Zsombor Rajkai
Tribute as a Diplomatic Strategy in Early Ming China	117

Morris Rossabi Yongle, Tributary Relations, and Foreign Policy	131
Britta-Maria Gruber Mongolian Tribute to the Manchu Ruler in 1632 and the Ruler's Gifts Given in Return	145
Rui Manuel Loureiro Early Iberian Reports on the Ming Tribute System: From Tomé Pires (1516) to Juan González de Mendoza (1585)	161
Wan Ming 萬明 Focusing on the Indian Ocean: An Interpretation of the Tributary System in the Early 15th Century	177
The Tribute
Sally K. Church 程思麗 A Lion Presented as Tribute during Chen Cheng's 陳誠. Diplomatic Expeditions to Herat (1413–1420)	203
Ralph Kauz Fiction, Painting and Reality: Paliuwan in Chinese Sources	223
Graeme Ford The Persian College Exemplary Letters in the Late Ming 'Huayiyiyu' Dictionary	233
James K. Chin Envoys, Brokers and Interpreters: Chinese Merchants in the Tribute System of Imperial China	251
Roderich Ptak Xiangshan County, Maritime Trade and Local Tribute (c. 1000–1550). With Special Consideration of Selected Animal Products	273
Csaba Olah Legal Private Trade within the Framework of the Ming Tribute System	295

Ching-fei Shih
A Case Study of Tribute Gift from the ‘Western Ocean’: Wooden Goblets with Nesting Cups in the Qing Court 317

List of Contributors 365