

Table of Contents

Deniz Kuru and Hazal Papuççular

Introduction — 1

Section I. Inside Out: Global Intellectual Trajectories of the Ottomans

Harun Buljina

Chapter 1

Bosnia's "Young Turks": The Bosnian Muslim Intelligentsia in its Late Ottoman Context, 1878–1914 — 29

Bariş Zeren

Chapter 2

Between Constitution, Empire, and Nation: An Intellectual Trajectory of Pancho Dorev and his Legalist Paradigm — 49

Berrak Burçak

Chapter 3

Deconstructing 'Orientalism' at the 1893 World's Columbian Exposition: Esmeralda Cervantes, Sultan Abdulhamid II and the "Address on the Education and Literature of the Women of Turkey" — 79

Section II. From Empire to Republic: The Transformation of Intellectual Dispositions in Republican Turkey

M. Sait Özervarlı

Chapter 4

Ottoman-Turkish Thought from a Global Intellectual History Perspective: An Analysis of Disenchantment from Positivism and Engagement with Bergsonian Intuitionism — 109

Pascale Roure

Chapter 5

Between French Culture and German Geist – The Transnational Constitutions of Turkish Academic Philosophy — 137

Deniz Kuru

Chapter 6

Globalizing Turkey's Intellectual Histories — 173

Section III. Interaction with the Global: Formation and Propagation of Ideas and Ideologies in Turkey

Hazal Papuççular

Chapter 7

The Wilsonian Ideas of the Ottoman Turkish Intelligentsia in Post-World War I Turkey — 197

Doğan Gürpınar

Chapter 8

Turkish Anticlericalism, Republicanism, and the Left: Intersections and Departures — 219

Jan-Markus Vömel

Chapter 9

Global Intellectual Transfers and the Making of Turkish High Islamism, c. 1960–1995 — 247

Deniz Kuru and Hazal Papuççular

Conclusion — 271

Index — 279

List of Contributors — 283