

Contents

Prologue to the English edition	7
---------------------------------	---

Introduction	11
--------------	----

Part I	Neoliberalism cannot resolve the system crisis	21
---------------	---	-----------

Chapter 1	The productivity revolution is not taking off	24
-----------	---	----

Chapter 2	Reducing costs exacerbates the demand crisis	30
-----------	--	----

Chapter 3	Access to the new markets is being restricted	33
-----------	---	----

Chapter 4	Financial crises are ruining the economy and the state	36
-----------	--	----

Chapter 5	The sovereign debt crisis is splitting Europe	38
-----------	---	----

Chapter 6	Cheap money is driving social inequality	45
-----------	--	----

Chapter 7	Who will foot the bill for the crisis?	48
-----------	--	----

Chapter 8	The democratic state is failing its citizens	57
-----------	--	----

Chapter 9	The reactionary revolt against the lack of alternatives	60
-----------	---	----

Part II	The progressive camp is weak and divided	67
----------------	---	-----------

Chapter 10	The bulwark is driving voters into the arms of the Right	69
------------	--	----

Chapter 11	The woke fringe of the Identitarian Left stages a cultural revolution	78
------------	---	----

Chapter 12	The post-Marxist left can explain the crisis, but not overcome it	96
------------	---	----

Chapter 13	Progressive neoliberals as handmaidens of the neoliberal elites	102
------------	---	-----

Chapter 14	Social democracy is mired in a crisis of credibility	108
------------	--	-----

Contents	5
----------	---

Part III	Transformative Realism	111
Chapter 15	It's the political economy, stupid!	114
Chapter 16	Building broad alliances across classes and life-worlds	117
Chapter 17	Strategic narratives must have broad appeal	119
Chapter 18	Retro-building alliances around the vision of a better future	124
Chapter 19	Lighthouse projects as catalysts for transformative alliances	127
Chapter 20	Classes, camps, life-worlds: The construction kit for alliance builders	130
Chapter 21	Mobilise the believers or reach out? The strategy debate in the progressive camp	140
Chapter 22	Who can join together? The debate over alliances	143
Chapter 23	The role of social democracy in the transformative alliance	155
 Part IV	 Building bridges: platforms for transformative alliances	 163
Chapter 24	The Green New Deal	166
Chapter 25	The nurturing and caring gardener state	171
Chapter 26	The Human Economy	177
Chapter 27	A sovereign and united Europe acting as a guardian	184
Chapter 28	Thriving homelands	196
 Epilogue		 212
Acknowledgements		217
Notes		218
About the author / About the translator		232