

List of Contents

| | |
|-----|--|
| 5 | Acknowledgements |
| 9 | Lukas Rösli and Stefanie Gropper In Search of the Culprit. Aspects of Medieval Authorship. Introduction |
| 17 | Jürg Glauser “... who is the author of this book?” Creating Literary Authorship in Medieval Iceland |
| 53 | Lukas Rösli The Primal Scribe. The Old Norse scriptogenesis and Ari Þorgilsson inn fróði as Iceland’s First Author |
| 75 | Stefanie Gropper The ‘Heteronomous Authorship’ of Icelandic Saga Literature. The Example of Sneglu-Halla þátttr |
| 97 | Sigurður Ingibergur Björnsson, Steingrímur Páll Kárasón and Jón Karl Helgason Stylometry and the Faded Fingerprints of Saga Authors |
| 123 | Judy Quinn Anonymity and the Textual Construction of Authority in Prosimetrum |
| 141 | Lena Rohrbach The Persistence of the Humanistic Legacy. Concepts of Authorship and Textuality in Konungasögur Studies |
| 175 | Slavica Ranković Spectres of Agency. The Case of Fóstbræðra saga and its Distributed Author |
| 193 | Gudrun Bamberger A Theory of Early Modern Authorship. Dealing with Accountability in 16 th -Century German Prose Novels |

| | |
|-----|---|
| 217 | Matthias Bauer and Angelika Zirker Shakespeare's Medieval Co-Authors |
| 239 | Madita Knöpfle Conceptions of Authorship. The Case of Ármanns rímur and Their Reworkings in Early Modern Iceland |
| 265 | Margrét Eggertsdóttir The Best-Written Saga and the Absence of its Author |
| 289 | Figures and Charts |
| 291 | Index of Names |
| 294 | Index of Works |
| 297 | Index of Manuscripts |
| 299 | Index of Matters |