

Contents

Preface 9

JAN ECKEL

Human Rights and World Order(s).
On the Prehistory of Our Present 11

I. Expansion

ROLAND BURKE

»To Sound Fine and Mean Nothing«?
The World Human Rights Conference 1993 37

DANIEL STAHL

Adapting Human Rights to Democracy.
Chilean Society and the Legacies of State Violence 61

KNUD ANDRESEN

An Agent of Change?
Human Rights and Business in the New South Africa 80

PAUL VAN TRIGT

Belated Integration.
Disability in International Human Rights Law 101

II. Interventions

ALEXA STILLER

The Genesis of the Human Rights-Based International Criminal Justice System.
The Hidden Significance of the First Iraq War 123

BARBARA KEYS AND AMY HODGSON
Human Rights Watch Takes on China.
Maintaining the Primacy of Civil and Political Rights, 1991-1996 141

MIKAEL RASK MADSEN
Territorial and Normative Expansions.
The European Court of Human Rights in Post-Cold War Europe 165

III. Contestations

KATRIN KINZELBACH
»Asian Values« versus »Western Values.«
A False Dichotomy 185

ROBERT HORVATH
Russia's Reversal on Human Rights. Nationalists and the Putin Regime's Rejection of International Norms 207

AVERELL SCHMIDT
Torture during the War on Terror.
A Story of Norm Contestation and Resistance 231

IV. Scholarship

HEIKE KRIEGER
Scholarly Activism on the Rise? German Human Rights Discourses after the End of the Cold War 253

ANNETTE WEINKE
Transitional Justice and Historiography.
An Uneasy Relationship 280

KATHRYN SIKKINK
»Political Science Did Not Provide Us
with the Insights We Needed.« An Interview 297

Bibliography	343
Abbreviations	379
List of Contributors	383
Index of Persons	385